CHAMBERLAIN'S SHIP IN PATH OF BIG HURRICANE IN WEST INDIES REGION

Hurricane Strikes Island of Haiti After Sweeping Porto Rico and Causing Great Losses; Believed It Will Lash Bahama Islands and Path of Cuba-bound Ships

New York, Sept. 14—Local officials of the French Cable Company at 11.30 a.m. to-day received a message from Cape Haitien, Haiti, saying the great storm which yesterday swept Porto Rico was expected to strike that point in an hour and a half. The storm was reported traveling northwest.

The news was interpreted as indicating the disturbance was bound to sweep the Bahama Islands and cross the lanes usually followed by Cuba-bound steamships.

In that path are many ships, including the Pacific Liner Orcoma, aboard which Sir Austen Chamberlain, British Foreign Minister, is voyaging toward Havana, Panama and California. The Orcoma is due at Havana Saturday, having sailed from Hamilton, Bermuda, Wednesday.

POWER DISPUTE IS NOW BEFORE LANDS MINISTER

Burden Must Rule on Districts Supplied By West Kootenay Company

An appeal filed this morning by F. A. McDiarmid as solicitor for Grand Forks with Hon. F. P. Burden, Minister of Lands, places responsibility of deciding Grand Fork's position in the West Kootenay Power and Light Company dispute upon the Minister.

Mr. McDiarmid appeals against the ruling of the Provincial Water Board that it has no jurisdiction to fix power rates in Grand Forks as the city is outside the radius for which the power company was granted a charter. The hearing before Mr. Burden has been set for Wednesday, October 10.

Mr. McDiarmid's appeal is for the city of Grand Forks only, which he claims is inside the fifty-mile radius around Rossland as prescribed in the West Kootenay Company's charter. Success in his case would still leave power rates in the air so far as the Granby Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company at Allenby, Kelowna, Penticton and Oliver, also supplied power by the West Kootenay Company, are concerned, unless the Minister when giving his decision chose to make a ruling to embrace those districts also.

While the Granby Company is now seeking an injunction from the courts to prevent its power supply being shut off, the city of Grand Forks is protected against this contingency by a special agreement.

JAPAN AGREES TO NAVY PACT

London Informed Tokio Accepts Principle of British-French Accord

London, Sept. 14—The British Government was informed to-day that Japan agrees to the principle of the proposed Anglo-French naval agreement.

The Japanese reply is understood to be on the way to London.

The Foreign Office again to-day intimated that if there should not be a general agreement among the five powers interested in the agreement, it was hoped there at least would be some constructive suggestion which would serve as a basis for forwarding the project of naval disarmament.

Besides Japan, the accord was submitted to the United States and Italy.

CITY SIGNS UP COLD STORAGE OBLIGATIONS

Active Start on Warehouse Plant Required Within Sixty Days

Pendray to Retire After Rounding Out Industries Programme

The certificate of obligation binding the Corporation of the City of Victoria to assure the Victoria Cold Storage and Terminal Warehouse Company Limited profits of $35,000 a year for ten years was signed formally before witnesses by Mayor J. C. Pendray at the City Hall to-day.

Contingent to the guarantee is the obligation of the cold storage concern to erect and maintain a modern plant at a cost not less than $500,000 on the site leased by the Dominion Government to the company for an annual rental.

The city will also give fixed taxation and low rate water to the warehouse company over a term of years. The agreement, formally ratified in the terms acceptable to Eastern backers of H. G. Brown and associates, was passed by the electorate in by-law form some time ago.

MUST BUILD SOON

The company has under sixty days remaining in which to start active construction on the site, the by-law requiring commencement of work within ninety days from the signing of the lease.

In announcing his intention to retire definitely from office at the close of the present year, Mayor Pendray stated to-day that his platform of industrial expansion had been advanced by the progress made here on the three major issues broached, an elevator, a worsted mill, and the cold storage plant.

FIRE VISITS TOWN OF YAHK

Four Stores, Garage and Residence Burned; Bridge Damaged By Flames

Yahk, B.C., Sept. 14—Fire which broke out at 2.15 yesterday afternoon wiped out the business sections of this town below the C.P.R. tracks, five business buildings and a residence being consumed. There was no loss of life, although several occupants of buildings escaped with little more than their personal belongings.

The Government bridge was damaged and until repairs can be made traffic over it is prohibited.

The losses, thousands of dollars, have not been fully counted up.

The property destroyed included: The Cosmopolitan Cafe and Yahk Meat Market, owned by Ed. Pederson; Paul P. Nordgren's Men's Furnishing Store, Herman Peterson's Men's Furnishings Store, and the Yahk Garage, owned by Fred Brownrigg. The residence was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunn.

Cars were stored in nearly every building but all of them were saved. Three barrels of gasoline were rescued from the flames.

Driven by a wind, the flames spread from building to building with great rapidity.

The cause of the fire is unknown.

Plan to Place Issue Direct With Purchasing Syndicate

For the first time in recent years British Columbia will go into the financial market for new loans without calling for tenders when loans totaling $6,000,000 are sought to refund $4,000,000 maturing treasury certificates due on November 1, and $2,000,000 short term Pacific Great Eastern Railway and British Columbia University Building bonds now maturing.

It is planned to allow the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the Dominion Securities, Wood Gundy, A. E. Ames & Company and probably a strong New York firm to handle the new loan outright, to be sold at the best rate obtainable.

LEAGUE STUDIES PROPOSAL IT OPERATE RADIO STATION

Geneva, Sept. 14 (Canadian Press Cable, via Reuter's)—While British delegates declared there was no immediate need for establishment of a League of Nations wireless broadcasting station at Geneva, the League's third committee has set a sub-committee to work studying the desirability of the project.

Hon Charles Dunning, Canadian Minister of Railways, who was appointed a member of the sub-committee, pointed out at yesterday's session that a country hostile to the broadcast might be able to spoil it with interference.

Lord Cadogan declared the budget of the League was already very heavy and would be unable to bear the burden which would be thus put on it. There was no immediate necessity for such a station, he declared.

Lord Lytton, on behalf of the Government of India, said India did not possess a station powerful enough to pick up Geneva messages, and in any event he had been instructed to oppose the establishment, which his Government did not consider necessary.

NO ONE WON PLANE RACE

Only New York Machine Which Reached Los Angeles Had Landed Once

Los Angeles, Sept. 14.—Stormy headwinds and motor trouble to-day strung six aeroplanes out across the continent and ended the New York-Los Angeles non-stop transcontinental air derby—a race without a winner, much less a qualifying finisher.

Of the nine planes which first began the race, three failed almost at the start and but one of the remainder arrived at Mines Field, here, western terminus of the cross-country dash. It was the Lockheed-Vega ship of Art Goebel and Harry Tucker.

Man Arrested At Cleveland Detroit Robber

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Paul Jaworsky, 27-year-old killer, who was shot and captured in a gun battle with police here yesterday, admitted participation in the $10,000 robbery of The Deroit News payroll a few months ago, Detective-Sergt. Zeigler announced.

One policeman was killed and another was shot during the holdup.

The gunman also told Detective-Lieut. Frank Storey he was on his way to Pittsburgh to "shoot his brother out of jail with a machine gun" when he was captured.

POOR RESPONSE DISAPPOINTING

Citizens Slow to Offer Cars For Visiting Passenger Agents

Mailing of 1,500 notices appealing for cars to help in the entertainment of the passenger agents who will come to Victoria Monday from the convention they are holding in Seattle, brought only 211 answers, George I. Warren, managing secretary, reported at the meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors to-day.

The notices sent enclosed a stamped and addressed card for return. Of the 211 answers, 161 decline to help, leaving only fifty-one who were willing to help.

Disappointment was voiced at the poor response. Several directors promised to place their cars or cars of the firms they were connected with at the disposal of the visiting agents.

LAYS CLAIM TO FORTUNE IN CHANCERY

Mrs. Jennings Arrives on the Niagara En Route to England to Lay Claim to £30,000,000

Denies That She is Going to Collect Full Sum; One of Numerous Claimants

On her way to England to put in a claim for an estate of £30,000,000, approximately $150,000,000, now lying in chancery in Great Britain, Mrs. M. F. Jennings of Sydney passed through Victoria this morning on the liner Niagara. She will stop off at Vancouver where she will meet her son who is coming from Los Angeles to join her.

When questioned as to her mission this morning Mrs. Jennings vigorously denied that she was going to collect the estate as had been declared in newspapers of Australia. "I am going like hundreds of other people to lay a claim to an estate to which I think I am partly entitled. But there are more than fifty people doing the same thing, so why it should be said that I am going to collect £30,000,000, I do not know. I do not suppose I shall get one-twentieth of that sum."

The estate which Mrs. Jennings is laying claim to has been in chancery for many years in England. Her great grandparents, her grandparents and her own father and mother have all laid claims to the estate but never with any success. Mrs. Jennings refused to discuss the estate. She will remain in Vancouver two weeks and will then go on to England.

The present case is one of many where fabulous fortunes are lying in Chancery. Chancery is a court in England which holds all estates until the heirs can prove that they are lawfully entitled to them.

There are hundreds of such cases in New York as well where persons from all over the world lay claims to some of the most valuable property on Wall Street and other business sections which years ago were farm lands. Cases in the United States are held in a Government Trust Fund along the same lines as Chancery in England.

MALKIN AIDED FOR CHIEF POST IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, Sept. 14—Expressing opposition to the candidacy of Louis D. Taylor for mayor of Greater Vancouver and advocating that the police throughout the Province should be taken over by the Provincial Government, the Central Ratepayers' Association of Vancouver favor W. H. Malkin for the post of mayor of the city after its amalgamation with adjoining municipalities.

At a meeting of the association last night a resolution was passed unanimously declaring "the members of this association desire to express their disapproval of the suggestion that Mayor Taylor should be employed by the city in an advisory or any other capacity. Such action, in our opinion, would be a decidedly bad precedent and would be entirely unjustifiable."

The executive brought forward a report recommending the enforcement of law and order throughout the Province should be taken over by the Provincial Government in the interests of economy and efficiency. This was left over for further discussion.

Throngs Of B.C. Citizens Cheer Williams For His Olympic Games Triumphs

ADDS TO CANADA'S FAME AND IS GIVEN HONORS BY PEOPLE

Youth Who Brought Honor to Canada by Winning 100 Metres and 200 Metres at Amsterdam Against the World's Fastest Runners Given One of Greatest Receptions Ever Witnessed in Vancouver; Met by Premier and Mayor

PERCY WILLIAMS

Vancouver, Sept. 14.—Percy Williams, Canada's Olympic hero, returned to his home city to-day and was accorded one of the greatest ovations ever witnessed in Vancouver. It was a picture of youth greeting youth and the Vancouver public and high school students were very much in the picture.

When the Transcanada train of the C.P.R., bearing the Olympic sprint champion and his mother, Mrs. Dot Williams, pulled in to the station a vast assemblage was gathered in the train sheds, waiting room and approaches to the station. Cheering broke loose and in the words of Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Premier of British Columbia, it was one of the most remarkable homecomings in the history of the Province.

It was a reception in which the city gave full expression to its enthusiasm over the athlete who at Amsterdam brought such glory to "his own home town" and his country.

PROCESSION WAS LONG

From the moment he stepped off the train to be received by Premier Tolmie, Hon. R. L. Maitland and Mayor Louis D. Taylor, until the long procession in which he was the principal attraction had reached Brockton Point, thousands of citizens gave full vent to the pride they felt in their young townsman, who carried the Maple Leaf to fame at the world's greatest athletic meet.

No sooner had Percy stepped into the open air from the west end of the C.P.R. station than the sun broke out from behind threatening clouds and flooded Granville Street with golden light that glanced from banner to banner and over a sea of cheering throngs that crowded the streets

AUTOISTS SCORE BORDER RULES

Unfair to Visitors to Mix Business and Pleasure Is Complaint

Sufferance Warehouse Trouble Also Before Chamber

Annoyance caused to United States business men, driving across the international boundary to Canada and returning the same day, by Canadian Customs regulations, was drawn to the attention of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce in a communication from Seattle before the directors this afternoon.

M. F. Brown, editor of The Seattle Daily Journal of Commerce, wrote on the subject and also enclosed an editorial appearing in his paper.

LAW CRITICIZED

The editorial pointed out that it was necessary for residents of the United States driving to Canada to pay duty on their cars unless their mission was strictly one of pleasure. The law, the editorial said, was obviously meant to prevent the importation of automobiles into Canada by those who otherwise might take advantage of a tourist privilege to escape duty while using machines strictly for business.

It was complained that the law was so unelastic that Americans whose chief object was one of pleasure, but who while in Canada might have some small business errand to transact—consulting a lawyer or business associate, or the inspection of property—were often put to great annoyance and inconvenience.

If duty were once paid on an automobile going into Canada, that car became, as far as the United States Government was concerned, a Canadian car. Upon re-entry into the United States it was again subject to duty, although this claim might be

HIGHER CHURCH SALARIES URGED

Rev. Dr. Endicott Addresses General Council of United Church of Canada

Winnipeg, Sept. 14—The question of recruits for the ministry will be the subject of careful study by a committee with a view to reporting to the 1930 meeting, it was decided at today's session of the General Council of the United Church of Canada here.

Rev. Dr. James Endicott, last year's Moderator, made a plea for the bettering of the economic position of the ministers. Years ago ministers' salaries were $200 or $300 a year, he said, but at that time the people of the country were on the average on a lower economic level than the ministers.

The people of the United Church had grown rich and were fully able to make adequate provision for all ministers, he asserted. There was no need to ask young men to prepare to make a great sacrifice in entering the ministry.

SEVENTY A YEAR

It was brought out that the United Church was losing on the average ninety ministers a year and that the new men coming in from the colleges numbered only about seventy a year.

It was decided a commission of eight should be named to attend the next World Conference on Faith and Order, following a report on the work of that organization presented by Rev. Dr. Mowe, clerk of the Assembly.

COURT PRESUMES DEATH OF LATE DR. D. B. HOLDEN

On application before Mr. Justice Murphy in Supreme Court Chambers this morning by H. G. Lawson for the heirs, an order was granted presuming the death of Dr. Donald Booth Holden, a passenger in the Ford monoplane of the B.C. Airways Company, on its ill-fated trip to Seattle on August 25 last. There was no question that Dr. Holden lost his life in the accident, counsel submitted, and although every effort had been made to recover the remains, success had not resulted. The bodies of three of the seven victims believed to have been on board the aircraft at the time of her disappearance have been recovered, but the machine itself cannot be found.

NEW RESEARCH GIVES HOPE TO TUBERCULOSIS VICTIMS

Swampscott, Mass., Sept. 14.—The beginnings of two striking pieces of research, one on tuberculosis and the other on rubber, were announced at yesterday's final scientific session of the annual meeting of the American Chemical Society.

The tuberculosis work is the artificial production of certain symptoms of the disease, without causing the disease itself, an experiment suggesting research into a new field of preventatives.

The rubber work has produced a new theory as to how rubber stretches.

Taking the water out of milk to save freight charges in transportation to the consumers was one of the suggestions made before the section on food chemistry.

I.O.O.F. HEAD TERMINATES OFFICIAL VISIT

Refers to Victoria as Almost Garden of Eden

"Although I have been here since Monday, I have not had an opportunity to see half the wonders of this beautiful city. It has been said by someone that when Adam and Eve left the Garden of Eden they came to Victoria. There are so many beautiful places to visit I contemplate bringing Mrs. McDonald over shortly and spend a real holiday here," said J. T. McDonald, Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in British Columbia, who leaves Victoria this morning to finish his work of visiting the remaining lodges in hs jurisdiction. He resides in Vancouver.

Mr. McDonald is popular with the membership, an excellent speaker and therefore received a hearty welcome in this city.

On Wednesday evening the banquet room was filled to capacity, when the ladies of the order were present, Mr. McDonald being a member of the Rebekah Degree.

Mr. Hastings, N.G. of Columbia Lodge, welcomed the visitors in a few well-chosen words.

Besides the address by the grand master, an address was given by J. K. Russell, building inspector and valuer of the Trustees Association, I.O.O.F. N.S.W.; L. C. Brockway and W. Paget, D.D. of Duncan and Victoria, respectively; Mrs. N. W. Penman, D.D.P. and Mrs. F. A. Walker, Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly, and Mr. Nuttall, N.G. of Dominion Lodge. A solo was rendered by Mrs. C. E. Kelley, accompanied by Mrs. George Deaville; a recitation by Mrs. W. D. Todd and Mr. Curtis officiated at the piano.

Wells Gray, M.P.P.-elect, New Westminster (re-elected for his thirteenth successive term); solicitor, George E. Martyn, New Westminster; executive, Reeve D. Poppy, Reeve J. W. Miller of Richmond, Mayor H. Clark of Trail, Comptroller A. J. Pilkington of Vancouver, Reeve W. Crouch of Saanich, Clerk R. F. Blandy of Oak Bay and Reeve J. B. Martyn of Maple Ridge.

The union decided unanimously to hold its next meeting at Harrison Hot Springs, in the district of Kent. An invitation was extended by Rev. John McRae and Miss Marguerite Deguslem, manager of the Hot Springs Hotel.

Mayor D. W. Sutherland of Kelowna put in a bid for the 1929 convention.

CRIME DETECTOR EXPLAINS WORK

Langsner, at Calgary, Replies to Statements Police Do Not Know Him

Calgary, Sept. 14—Dr. Maximilian Langsner was not in the least perturbed when shown a telegram from Toronto yesterday stating the Vienna police department had denied all knowledge of him and his activities; that Chicago knew nothing of him being retained to clear up mysteries there; that the New York police did not know of him; that Dr. Derome, Montreal criminologist, did not know of him; and further that Sir Arthur Conan Doyle denied all knowledge of him.

So far as Vienna was concerned his work there had largely centred on mental therapy, the doctor said, and he handed The Calgary Herald representative an original letter from Prof. Ferdinand Winkler of Wien, stated to be one of the leading professors at Vienna University, which commended Dr. Langsner on his work.

The doctor ran over the names of a number of police and other authorities to whom he was known. These included Dr. Tartaruga of the police headquarters, Vienna. "I would like anyone to ask Dr. Tartaruga if he knew Langsner—Kara Iki," he said, "or Dr. Engelbrecht of Leipsig, head of the criminal investigation department there."

SUSPECT SHADOWED

"Every move of the suspected murderer of Ambrose Small of Toronto is being shadowed by my assistants," Dr. Langsner said.

With regard to Chicago and New York of Montreal, the investigations he was at present conducting were not being done through the police authorities, but on behalf of private individuals. It was therefore only natural that at the present time the police were not acquainted with him.

He asserted he had met Sir Arthur Conan Doyle in Cairo and in Vienna. He said Sir Arthur would recall the meeting in Vienna when among others present were Dr. Thoma, the celebrated mental specialist and his medium, Megulis.

Dr. Langsner mentioned that since 1921 he had been traveling abroad, and that it was during that time he had developed his system of crime detection, hence the Vienna police professed ignorance of him.

Earlier this week Dr. Langsner was quoted as saying he expected soon to find the skeleton of Ambrose Small, Toronto theatre millionaire, who disappeared in December, 1919.

Moves to Extend Union of Churches

Winnipeg, Sept. 14—It was reported at yesterday's session of the General Council of the United Church of Canada here that conferences had been held with the Synod of the Reformed Episcopal Church in Canada, and that the latter church, under certain conditions, was prepared to recommend union to its congregations with the United Church. The conditions were that the synod be assured of the sympathy of the United Church for the furtherance of its type of worship, wherever opportunity presented itself, and also of the continuance of the episcopate within the group.

It was further revealed that conferences were being held with a view to union with the Christian Church in Ontario.

GOEBEL IN U.S. PLANE RACE

Los Angeles, Sept. 14.—A. T. Goebel of Los Angeles yesterday won the transcontinental nonstop air race from New York to Los Angeles. He brought his white Lockheed Vega plane to a landing at Mines Field here at 3.22 p.m. He had been in the air approximately twenty-three hours and fifty minutes. Flying low at first over the finish line, where $22,500 in prizes had been hung up, Goebel circled the field and made a rather rough landing in front of the four big grandstands erected for the carnival.

Goebel, "dog-tired," climbed slowly from his oil-streaked monoplane. With Harry Tucker, his backer and passenger on the overnight flight, Goebel was led to the announcer's platform.

"We had to fight all the way," Goebel said.

He blamed the failure on a faulty carburetor which, he said, shot gasoline into the air instead of into the motor during much of his night of battling with strong head winds and rainstorms.

One door had been torn from the monoplane. Tucker had opened it to hurl out an empty gas can and the wind ripped it from his hands, breaking two cabin windows and punching holes in the fuselage. The door was torn from its hinges and hurled into the night.

Five of the nine starters were forced out of the race Wedensday night and early yesterday, one in a serirous crash.

DISABLED MEN TO MEET HERE

Two Hundred Delegates Expected For Amputation Association Convention

Arrangements for an interesting programme apart from the convention agenda, are being made by the Victoria Amputation Association for the delegates to the Dominion convention which will open in Victoria on Monday.

Two hundred delegates will attend, some of whom will arrive to-morrow afternoon. To-morrow the delegates on hand will be taken on an automobile ride which will include a trip to the Astrophysical Observatory on Little Saanich Mountain. In the evening they have been invited to attend a smoking concert at the Army and Navy quarters. A commemoration service will be held Sunday morning in the City Temple, to which all other ex-service men in the city are invited. The amputation men will meet outside the Empress Hotel at 10.30 to march to the service.

VANCOUVER GREETS OLYMPIC GAMES VICTOR

Youth called to youth. The school generation dominated the proceedings. They provided the color of a thrilling spectacle. They even contributed to the music, two juvenile bands playing.

BANNERS CARRIED

Thousands of schoolboys and schoolgirls were in the procession and they bore standards which struck the note of their welcome.

"Hundred Metres and 200 Metres, oh boy!" read one sign.

"Percy, you're a wonder," said another.

"Your old school, King Edward, is proud of you," was a third motto.

The Vancouver Firemen's Band was in line and interesting floats were provided by various sports clubs.

"Dad" Quick, 108, and "Spud" Miller, 4, were in a car labelled "Percy's oldest and youngest friends."

VICTOR SMILED

The young Olympic champion seemed dazed with the vociferous welcome given him by his native city. He sat in the leading car, bareheaded, somewhat pale, but smiled as the volleys of cheers and shouts of "Good boy, Percy," went up.

The most interesting sections of the parade of a mile and a half were made up of the city's school children. It was "their Percy" who had done this thing, who was being honored; it was a school-boy, one of their own kind, who had brought new splendor to the British Columbia coast, and there was not a boy or girl in the parade who was not conscious of the fact.

THOUSANDS IN PARK

The roped-off area beside the Harding Memorial in Stanley Park attracted many at an early hour, and long before the first band was heard coming down Georgia Street the numbers had swelled to thousands. In the centre of the area stood the gift coupe with its bright new number plate bearing Percy's number, 52,841. When the last units of the parade had been packed into the reserved area Colonel Nelson Spencer, M.P.P.-elect, welcomed Percy Williams and Premier and Mayor Taylor to the platform.

Moving picture cameras clicked and the school children cheered.

"Perhaps the most remarkable homecoming in the history of British Columbia," said Premier Tolmie in opening his official welcome on behalf of the Province. He declared he had never seen such enthusiasm, joy and pride.

"It is beautiful in every respect and in one of the finest settings in the world. There is this sea of smiling faces and the blue sky—blue since this morning — and backed by British Columbia's finest trees," he said.

"In welcoming Percy Williams to British Columbia I am glad to hear he proposes to remain here; that he is not going to the United States or some other country. Let us treat him right," said the Premier.

GIVEN COUPE

Following the official welcome by Mayor Louis D. Taylor and the presentation on behalf of the city of an illuminated address and a smart automobile, Colonel Nelson Spencer, M.P.P.-elect, chairman, called on Percy.

"I can't call you anything but friends," said Percy. After this wonderful reception I know you are my friends. It has been wonderful.

"I want to thank the mayor, the Premier and you all.

"I have seen a lot of Europe, but if you put it all beside Vancouver, I would choose Vancouver."

As he stepped down there was a thunderous ovation.

Lieutenant-Governor Bruce yesterday dispatched the following telegram from Victoria to Percy Williams, to greet him as he crossed the border into British Columbia: "Heartiest congratulations on the world-wide distinction you have won and the honor you have brought to Canada and your native Province."

His Honor was in Paris at the time of the Olympic Games and from the French capital sent a telegram of congratulation to young Williams on his great achievement.

NEWEST IN SETS NOW ON DISPLAY AT RADIO SHOW

EXCELLENT EXHIBITS

The floor space in the centre of the room is occupied by the Mohawk exhibit displayed by The Radio Shop. Among the fine sets in this booth are two excellent consoles, a combination phonograph-radio instrument, and some unusual smaller sets.

Kent's display of De Forest Crosley Radios introduces a novel style of naming into the radio vocabulary. Such suggestive names as the Etude, Symphony, Nocturne, Sonata and Concerto seem particularly fitting for the different types of receivers. The Etude is a seven-tube, battteryless set with a new hazeltine neutrodyne circuit. It is contained in an elegant cabinet of golden-bronze tint on a wrought iron table, which gives it one of the most distinctive designs in the show.

The Belmont Radio Service is featuring the Atwater Kent receivers. They have on display three fine consoles and several table sets, one of exceptional beauty enclosed in a rose-colored cabinet.

At the extreme west of the room the Kolster distributors are displaying their sets. In this booth is a receiver encased in a glass cabinet, which gives people who examine it an opportunity to see the entire workings of the instrument.

Adjoining this booth is that of the Crowther Brothers, who are featuring the Erla sets. Besides several fine table instruments, there are also excellent consoles in this display.

Plimley and Ritchie and the Marconi people have both confined themselves to the exhibition of one large console, the former showing the latest Westinghouse instrument, while the latter has one of its own type on display.

The C.W. Radio firm has also entered some fine Fadas and Radiolas of several varieties, while the Murphy Electric Company is showing Westinghouse and batteryless receivers.

The McLennan McFeeley and Prior exhibits are displayed on the stage at the south end of the room. Here, too, many conveniences and smaller sets are shown to advantage.

The Radiola Company is showing its sets in the alcove at the north of the room. Several varieties of radios are shown in this display, including Radiolas, Kolster machines and Sparton sets.

Fletcher Brothers are displaying the new Victor models and the Marconi 1929 radios. These, like all exhibits in the show, are of excellent quality and great beauty.

The Model 801-A Stewart Warner A.C. receiver is featured in H. G. Minty's booth. The instrument includes a built-in power unit, light socket aerial and many other unusual contrivances.

SHOWS RADIO PROGRESS

Every exhibit in the show is a marked improvement over the instruments displayed in previous years and serves to illustrate the great progress made in the radio field during the year.

Mayor Pendray officially opened the show last evening. During the ceremony he made the announcement that he would retire entirely from civic life, and expressed his appreciation of the kindness and co-operation he had received from the city during his term of office for the last four years.

Mayor Pendray made this statement as a result of the remark of Harold Grant, in which the latter said that Mr. Pendray had opened the show three times already and the club hoped that he would be able to do so again in the future.

The keen interest in radio activities here was shown by the eagerness with which the spectators examined the booths and questioned the demonstrators. The show will remain open until Saturday night.

GOVERNMENT OUT FOR $6,000,000 DISCARDING BIDS

came as a surprise to some financial interests in Victoria to-day.

"If it became a permanent policy it would not be in the interests of the Province because it would stop important United States firms in New York bidding on British Columbia bonds," H. E. Boorman of the B.C. Bond Corporation stated. He mentioned such firms as Halsey Stuart & Company and Miller & Company. At the present time, however, Mr. Boorman considered it was the only policy possible because of the high rates for money now prevailing in New York. Call money, he pointed out, is at its highest rate at this time of the year for many years. Large bond issues are on the shelves of bond dealers, both in Canada and the United States, the market having receded three or four points for provincial and industrial alike. Foreign bonds have reached on an average very much less than other securities, in fact, Japanese, Brazil and other issues are higher than they were before the break which took place six months ago. Dominion and provincial bonds have suffered the most because low yielding securities were liquidated first and money placed on call in New York, not only by the banks but by "outsiders," the "outsiders'" loans increasing heavily.

C. L. H. Branson of Branson, Brown & Company said Alberta and Ontario are also adopting the system of appointing fiscal agents. Alberta placed her last two issues with agents. Ontario intends to follow the system. With the Canadian bond market for high grade bonds so low he thought the system at this time was right.

What Will you do

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhoea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use; in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that Baby becomes fretful, or restless. Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is to-day. Every druggist has it.

CHAMBERLAIN'S SHIP IS IN PATH OF BIG HURRICANE IN WEST INDIES REGION

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 14.—One vessel was on the rocks to-day, shipping was disrupted, houses were in ruins and other buildings were without roofs as the result of a tropical hurricane in the Porto Rico region.

It was estimated the damage in San Juan and its vicinity would be as much as $2,000,000. Transportation and communications were disrupted. The loss of life and injuries were undetermined.

The hurricane reached its greatest intensity at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. For six hours the wind blew at an average of 100 miles an hour, with occasional squalls at 150 miles. The anemometer at the weather bureau registered 132 miles an hour before being carried away by the force of the wind.

FREIGHTER WENT ASHORE

The freighter Helen pulled its anchor and drifted on the rocks at the entrance to the harbor. Two sailing vessels appeared from the shore to be sinking.

The city was plunged in darkness and transportation was halted.

Communication with other parts of the island was cut off and it was thought days would elapse before it was restored. Weather bureau officials believed, however, that San Juan had probably borne the brunt of the storm and that the south side of the Island had not suffered so greatly.

ROOFS CARRIED AWAY

The hurricane ripped the roof off the Palace Hotel, in the centre of the city. Part of the roof of the Union Club was carried away.

The Governor's palace was flooded. Windows and doors were blown in. Cocoanut trees and other palms in the garden were blown down.

Throughout San Juan and its suburbs houses were destroyed and others damaged. Trees broken off or uprooted by the hurricane crashed in the walls of homes and fell across the streets, blocking traffic.

Franz Romer, a German sailor bound for the United States in a collapsable canoe, was believed to be in the storm area, having left San Juan on Tuesday.

Just a few weeks ago Goebel and Tucker roared eastward from Los Angeles to land in New York after a non-stop flight that hung up a new record. Yesterday the same plane came westward, but bad weather forced it down at Prescott, Ariz., causing disqualification from the race, although it sailed on to Mines Field a few minutes later, the sole finisher.

THE CASUALTIES

The Bellanca plane of George Haldeman grounded at Albuquerque, N.M., when a night of bucking headwinds exhausted its gasoline long before it could have reached Mines Field.

A leaky valve on an emergency gas tank brought Lieut. Jack Iseman, in the Bellanca plane Columbia, down at Amarillo.

Bergin, in a Bellanca, hit the same misfortune as Haldeman and landed at Willard, N.M.

An ice-encased carburetor ended Nick Mamer's attempt in a Buehl air sedan at Rawlins, Wyo.

Colonel William Thaw and John P. F. Morris crashed in a Lockheed-Vega at Decatur, Ind., when a broken oil line put an end to their attempt.

It was the only accident to mar the race and fear of it was expressed by aviators before the plane left New York because of its heavy motor. Thaw, who flew in the World War, seemed unconcerned, however.

The two men lay in a field for hours after the ship had crashed before a farmer discovered them and extricated them from the wreckage. Both fliers had bones dislocated and bruises and Morris suffered a fracture of the pelvis.

The remaining three planes entered in the race, McMillin's Stinson, the Stinson Junior flown by Randolph Page, and the Bellanca of O. C. B. Leboutillier were forced down quickly after the start of the race Tuesday, all by engine trouble.

ARRIVAL AT FIELD

It was a thrilling sight to 90,000 persons who milled about the field here yesterday when Goebel piloted the Yankee Doodle to the port and was given a tremendous ovation, and, together with Tucker, he got out of the plane, red-eyed and weary.

Many believed the trim monoplane had won the race, but Goebel, knowing the landing in Arizona had disqualified him, notified officials and it was subsequently announced to the crowd.

"Several times during the night I thought we were gone," Tucker said.

ACHIEVED AIMS

"I have accomplished all I set out to do," His Worship said. "I believe that I have given Victoria a start industrially by pursuing my policy in that direction. I have done my utmost to curtail expenditures and thereby lessen the tax burden on property holders. I have made a sincere attempt in every way to carry out an efficient economic administration, and decline to seek re-election, with confidence that I have at least given my best endeavor in implementing the platform on which I was elected four years ago."

NEXT MONDAY'S INVASION

IT WOULD BE SAFE TO SAY THAT THE average American tourist of moderate means usually asks the advice of his local ticket agent when he is planning a vacation on this continent. The ticket agent has all the information that is required and it is a simple matter for him to map out an itinerary that will suit a purse of almost any size. Victoria very naturally is especially interested in the number of people who visit this city every year. We depend upon the holidaymaker for a good deal of our seasonal business. On this account the people of this community may be depended upon to extend a hearty welcome to the twelve hundred members of the American Association of Railroad Ticket Agents who will be the city's guests for the whole day of Monday next. This organization is holding its annual convention in Seattle and in view of the fact that Victoria now figures so largely in the North American tourist movement the delegates have made special arrangements to see for themselves just what we have to offer in this section of British Columbia. The Admiral Pierce has been chartered to convey the party across the Sound to this port.

We need hardly say that the local committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce will require all the assistance and co-operation our citizens can give them if they are to look after so many visitors in the manner in which we shall hope it will be possible to look after them. It ought to be worth an extra effort on the part of those who have automobiles. A very large number will be required and it is desirable that owners who are able to spare the time make known as early as possible their willingness to assist. It will be understood, of course, that this organization is by far the most important to visit Victoria for many years. As we have pointed out, very largely in the hands of its members is placed the opportunity of routing holidaymakers to this part of the continent. They can be the means of sending thousands of tourists and hundreds of thousands of dollars to Victoria; or they can, just as easily, divert their clients elsewhere. It is, therefore, in their own interests for our citizens to see that the impression which they receive shall be a favorable one in every sense of the term. This is not to suggest that we are looking upon next Monday's invasion from a purely mercenary point of view. Our welcome would be just as warm if there were nothing whatever to be gained by making that welcome apparent.

UP TO THE LEGISLATURE NOW

NOW THAT THE UNION OF BRITISH Columbia Municipalities proposes to ask the Tolmie Government to enact legislation making provision for a Public Utilities Commission, we may assume that opportunity will be taken at the next session of the Legislature to comply with the request of such an important body.

Within the next few years British Columbia is bound to see important industrial developments and the expansion of activities in which the exploitation of our natural resources will be involved. In such developments the general public of the province are directly interested and their rights must be safeguarded in every respect.

We shall expect to be told that British Columbia once had a Public Utilities Commission and abolished it. Perhaps the circumstances did not warrant such a body at that time; but much has happened since then. There now is urgent need for machinery of this kind, and in the not distant future that need will be still further emphasized.

In these days of financing which is beyond the understanding of the ordinary mortal, with big corporations taking a firmer hold of resources rightfully belonging to the public, it is essential that the interests of the taxpayers be protected, without in any way discouraging legitimate enterprise.

A GOOD PLACE TO LIVE?

WHAT ARE THE THINGS THAT make a town or a city a good place in which to live?

They vary for different people, of course. To some men, Montreal or London is the only city in which life is endurable; to others, it is the last place on earth to be chosen. Some men cling to the small town; others cannot stand such a place for more than a week.

Nearly every place is a better place to live in than its surface appearance indicates. We have all seen towns that seem utterly drab, flat and uninteresting; yet in each of them there can be found plenty of people who are quite satisfied and happy with their surroundings. To get used to a place is, nearly always, to find unsuspected points in its favor.

But when one travels across any section of the country, by train or by auto, one finds certain places that stand out in memory as desirable localities. Every traveler knows the experience of coming unexpectedly into a town that seems to breathe attractiveness in every street and building. Beauty of location, charm of atmosphere, tastefulness of construction—certain qualities seem to combine, every now and then, to give a city distinction and grace.

The traveler remembers these places and wants to revisit them. He pays them the silent tribute of saying, to himself, "Here's a place I'd rather like to live in some day." And the inhabitants of such towns are more lucky than most of us. Their surroundings help to give peace and contentment.

Every man has his own list, of course, and doubtless no two lists are alike. But one of the chief advantages of Summer vacation touring is that it thrusts one, every now and then, into some such place. Hour after hour one drives along through country that is not particularly noteworthy; and then, just as one begins to get a bit tired of it, the road swings around a bend, down a hill—and one is in the middle of a place that will remain in the memory ever after.

Those are the bright spots of the vacation tour. They help to give a significance to all the rest of one's life. The man who has the memory of such spots tucked safetly away always has places of refuge. He may never revisit them; but they will be there in the mind's eye waiting for him, persuading him that his fellow men build delightful towns amid delightful surroundings.

CANADA'S MEAL TICKET

CANADA'S WHEAT CROP THIS YEAR is expected to reach 550,000,000 bushels. As almost all of this is being raised in the Prairie Provinces that region now is the busiest part of the Dominion. There are more than 2,000,000 people, rural and urban, in the three great grain-growing provinces who are immediately involved in this activity, while there are between seven and eight millions of other Canadian people who are watching it with very deep personal interest. Agriculture, of course, is the economic backbone of Canada. In it is invested the vast sum of nearly $8,000,000,000, and its gross annual production is valued at $2,000,000,000. Last year the three Prairie Provinces contributed more than $1,600,000,000 in field crops to the agricultural output; wheat alone counting for one-third of that total. Saskatchewan itself produced enough wheat to feed a population of 40,000,000 people.

If it were not for this immense production of the three provinces directly east of the Rockies, Canada would be little more than a geographical expression. Her material progress in every other line of activity would be about a fourth of what it has been. Manufactures, banking and transportation would be merely a fraction of what it is now, while Canada's foreign trade would be many hundreds of millions less. Cities like Vancouver and Winnipeg would still be small towns, while Montreal, which was built up largely on the basis of agricultural development in the West, would be less than half its present size.

Hence everything which tends to expand the agricultural industry of the Prairie Provinces vitally contributes to the material prosperity of the whole country and, conversely, anything which restricts that industry weakens the economic condition of virtually every part of the Dominion. The prairie farmer must export about two-thirds of his crop to the open markets of the world, since the home market can consume only a small fraction of what he produces.

Canada's great wheat crop, therefore, is largely Canada's meal ticket.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

THE MONTREAL BRIDGE

Le Canada

The Montreal bridge, we are assured, will be completed during the Fall of 1929. By this bridge, in the following Spring, thousands and thousands of tourists will come to visit us. What steps has Montreal taken to give this bridge a suitable approach, an approach which will not disgust the strangers who pass through the city?

MODERN CIVILIZATION

Rev. Dr. R. H. Murray in The Contemporary Review

The pursuit of happiness is natural to man and, in some form or other, has always employed his activities. The builders of Utopias may roughtly be divided into these two categories: those who seek to subtract and those who seek to add and multiply. The worst of any general scheme of the sort is that—in no other matter is the adage so true — one man's meat is another man's poison. Fourier, for instance, considered variety, constant employment and promiscuity as elements in happiness; but there are those who love nothing so well as monotony, solitude and leisure—divine trio, out of which issue great thoughts, combined ideas, deep and instinctive memories, even as bees issue forth and hover above their quiet hives. The man in the street is wise who has summed up rightly that it is impossible to make a man happy by Act of Parliament.

THE OLYMPIC GAMES

The London Daily News

The most welcome feature of the Olympic games, the athletic section of which has now ended, is the growth of real good-feeling between the national groups. It was for this purpose that the meetings were instituted; but, until the present, every Olympiad appears to have led to exactly the opposite effect. How could it be otherwise, many will ask, when the national element is dominant Fortunately, the meeting at Amsterdam has shown how healthy rivalry can coexist with a universal appreciation of praiseworthy achievement by anyone. It is a happy development, because some such spirit must prevail if ever the ideal of international goodwill is to be anything more than a beautiful dream. The Olympic games will fulfil an important role if they can foster this spirit, and the Amserdam meetng may come to have an historic significance.

Assume that you are playing against a no trump declaration. Your partner leads a card. You observe from the dummy or infer from the declarer's play that your partner has led from a weak four card suit. You should determine at once whether to return the lead, whether it is more advisable to switch to your strongest suit or whether to play through the declarer to dummy's weakness.

At suit play, before returning your partner's lead, you should attempt to visualize his hand, especially when he leads a small card. If your partner has strength in a suit he will lead an honor. If he leads a small card it may be from a suit containing Q X X X or J X X X. Of course, if you believe his lead to be a singleton, return the suit; otherwise it may be more advisable to switch to another suit, playing through the declarer to weakness in the dummy. Merely because your partner leads a suit to you, is no reason for returning it.

While this convention should usually be followed, there are times when it should be ignored. Assume that the dummy holds J-X-X and you hold Q X. The declarer leads a small card with the obvious purpose of finessing the Jack in the dummy. It is logical to take with your Queen, especially if you need that one trick to set or to prevent frame.

When similar situations arise, do not play second hand low.

LABOR MEN STATE HARVEST PLAN MISTAKE

Canadian Trades Congress Speakers Term Excursion From Britain Error

Toronto, Sept. 14.—Immigration problems formed the chief subject of discussion at yesterday afternoon's session of the annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada here. While there were few aspects of the immigration policy left untouched, the feature of the session was the unqualified deunuciation of the British miner-harvester movement and an address by Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Labor, in which he dealt forcefully with the immigration question.

Mr. Heenan charged there was a well-thought-out campaign being conducted in Great Britain to stampede the Federal Government into bringing British unemployed to Canada by the shipload. The propaganda was motivated by the desire of certain interests in the United Kingdom to solve a political problem and encouraged by persons in Canada who wanted to flood the labor market and provide ten men for every job, said Mr. Heenan. As an instance of the working of the scheme, the Minister said, advertisements in England were telling the people coal miners were wanted in Canada at high wages, when, as a matter of fact, there was a surplus of miners in every coalfield in the Dominion.

WISH TO WORK

"It is a lie," declared Mr. Heenan, "to say the British unemployed don't want to work and that they are content to subsist on the dole. They want to work, and so the false reports of lots of work and high wages in Canada are eagerly received."

The Labor Minister defended the movement of British miners to Canada for harvest labor and pointed out it was separate from the immigration policy generally.

OFFER WAS MADE

"We knew we could get men in other parts of the world," Mr. Heenan said, "but the British Government offered us 25,000 men accustomed to hard manual labor, and why should we turn down our own flesh and blood?

"We placed the responsibility on the British Government and limited the number we would accept to 10,000.

"We are prepared to stand by these men and see they are looked after. If any of you find any of them who are in difficulties, just get in touch with the Government and we will see they are sent back home."

COMMITTEE'S STATEMENT

A special committee appointed at the beginning of the labor convention to deal with immigration brought in its report at yesterday's session and coupled a reaffirmation of Labor's immigration platform with a denunciation of the importation of harvest labor.

"No language is too strong," the report declared, "to denounce the bringing here of men ostensibly for farm labor so late in the year, when they are certain to compete with men already here for the few jobs available in the Winter."

MUCH CRITICISM

The British Government, the Canadian Government and the railway and steamship companies and the Salvation Army all received criticism in connection with the scheme. William Varley of Toronto declared the persons responsible for the movement were "guilty of a criminal offence in making misrepresentations to induce men to come here."

SUGGESTION FROM BRITAIN

Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, read a letter from W. J. Egan, Deputy Minister of Immigration, in reply to questions addressed by Mr. Moore to Premier King. The letter stated the first suggestion of the harvester movement had come from the British Government, and, after consultation with the Governments of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, it had been decided to go ahead, the whole responsibility resting with the British Government and the two Canadian railways. The railways were to secure "harvest and Winter farm employment," the letter stated. There had been no suggestion from Canada that the men should be recruited from the mining districts of Great Britain.

The statements of British Laborites now touring the West with the Empire Parliamentary Association that the scheme was working out satisfactorily were ridiculed by Elmer Roper of Edmonton, chairman of the immigration committee.

"It must be some investigation," he remarked, "that a man can make traveling through Canada on a train and stopping at the best hotels."

EXCURSION CANCELLED

The Britishers were not even required during the harvest season, declared Senator Gideon Robertson. Owing to their arrival, he said, the second harvest excursion from Eastern Canada had been cancelled, and thousands of young men in the Maritime Provinces had been deprived of their accustomed opportunity to obtain seasonal employment on the prairies.

President Moore produced clippings from English newspapers showing, he said, that the miners had been promised £40 over their living expenses by Right Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery, speaking in the British House of Commons, and £10 over their expenses and fare both ways by Captain Chapman, a representative of the Canadian Government.

FUNDS FOR IMMIGRATION

A resolution opposing grants of public funds to induce immigration was rejected. Elmer Roper of the immigration committee explained the Congress was not opposed to immigration, but only to improper methods.

The convention endorsed a recommendation that the existing agreement between the Federal Government and the railways respecting "letters of assurance and employment" should not be renewed. The privileges granted had been much abused, it was said, and it tended to encourage foreign immigration rather than British. Railway agents were paid a commission for getting farmers to fill in forms for the introduction of immigrants and received more from the higher fares paid by Europeans.

STORIES OF INTIMIDATION

Winnipeg, Sept. 14—Stories of how they had been intimidated by other discontented harvesters and how they had remained in hiding until the "agitators," as they called them, had left for the first leg of the return journey to England were related by fifteen British harvesters who turned up here mysteriously yesterday after departure of the train bearing their fellows homeward and asked for work.

They had pretended they were going on the train with the others, they stated but had hidden. Some of the group left in a few hours for the harvest fields.

SOME WORK AND OTHERS DO NOT

Several small groups of men arrived at the immigration hall yesterday and joined the thirty others there. A number of these accepted country jobs, while others refused to discuss even six dollars a day, Immigration Commissioner said.

"All of Canada is bad," said one, "and we are going back home to say so and warn others."

On the other hand, one harvester who had been working in the Plum Coulee district reported his employer had paid him five dollars a day instead of the four dollars agreed upon. He expected to remain in Canada.

Cadet Money Grants Opposed By Labor

Toronto, Sept. 14—Cadet training in schools was brought before the annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada here yesterday in a resolution demanding its removal, with "the abolition of all militaristic and imperialistic teaching from the school curriculum." As finally passed, the resolution simply requests abolition of money grants for cadet training and military training in the schools and suggests the employment of the money in other forms of physical education.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 14.—Dr. Maximilian Langsner, Austrian criminologist, who promises to clear up the Ambrose J. Small mystery in Toronto, will be sought by Hamilton officials if he can "deliver the goods."

There are several mysteries here to test the crime expert's skill in Hamilton and civic authoritis state they are willing to bring Dr. Langsner to Hamilton if he succeeds in Toronto.

WOMEN ACHIEVE PARTIAL VICTORY FOR ORDINATION

But General Council of United Church Defers Action

Theology Only Profession Closed to Women, Mrs. McClung Protests

Winnipeg, Sept. 14—Those favoring the ordination of women in the United Church of Canada gained a partial victory at the General Council meeting here last night, but there still remains a final victory before definite action is taken on this subject.

"There is no bar in religion or reason to the ordination of women to the ministry," declared a resolution adopted at last night's session, but the same motion decided the General Council should take no action on the matter at present.

WOMEN AS ELDERS

This expression of opinion was favorably received by exponents of the subject and another step forward was made when it was decided ordination of women to the eldership be placed before the committee on law for a decision.

MRS. NELLIE McCLUNG

It was resolved the committe on law should be asked to determine whether by a declaration of the Council the word "men" in the constitution, or basis of union of the United Church might not legally be held to include women, or to devise a means whereby, under the Barrier Act, the necessary change might be secured.

MRS. McCLUNG'S VIEWS

Mrs. Nellie McClung of Calgary presented the report of the committee on ordination.

"It is strange," declared Mrs. McClung, "that all the sciences and professions are open to women to-day, but theology is closed."

Through all time, she said, it had been agreed women could help other women. Some ministers of the church had told her women of their church did not favor the ordination of women, Mrs. McClung referred to the lonely places on the home mission fields of the West, where women might serve to lessen the suffering.

"If women can do one kind of work in the remote districts, they can do it in another," she concluded.

TOUR PROSPECT THRILLS YOUNG OPERA SINGER

Madame Marion Frank Arrives From Australia on First Visit Here

"I am so thrilled to reach this continent, of which I have heard so much. I am a little nervous to be sure, but I feel sure I shall have success on my tour."

Leaning on the rail of the promenade deck on the liner Niagara, which arrived this morning from the Antipodes, Madame Marion Frank, contralto with the Royal Opera Company of Berlin, Budapest and Vienna, expressed this opinion of her coming North American tour as she gazed for the first time on a Canadian city. "People from this continent whom I have met in other parts of the world, have been so charming and so wonderful to me that I feel that I shall love the cities of this continent and spend as much time as possible here."

Madame Frank has just completed a four months' engagement in Australia and New Zealand. The noted European contralto left her home in Vienna after years of study with famous masters, and this year sang in Paris, Marseilles, Cairo, Capetown and the cities of the Antipodes."

Madame Frank will meet her brother in Philadelphia, and will then go on to New York, where she has an extensive engagement, her first in the United States. She will sail for Vienna towards the end of the year, and will later return to fill an extensive tour which is now being arranged for her.

"Everything in Australia has been wonderful," she said, "except the opera houses. They are too small. They will not accommodate more than 500 people, and that is most annoying."

With a charming personality, Madame Frank promises to become one of the world's greatest artists. Sydney newspapers speak of her voice as one of the most beautiful that has ever been heard there. With great dark eyes and jet black hair Madame Frank is a handsome woman. She speaks English with a delightful Viennese accent. "I have only spoken English for six months," she explained.

Madame Frank was most generous with her talents on the ship passengers reported, and practically every evening entertained her fellow travelers with numbers from her extensive repertoire. "They were all so lovely to me, and they seemed to enjoy my singing. What else could I do?" she said.

Madame Frank said she was sorry she could not see more of Victoria, about which she heard so much on the Niagara, coming up. "But I feel certain I shall return here some day and give a concert," she said. "I have heard great artists who have appeared here say that there are no more appreciative audiences anywhere else in the world than in Victoria. I will come back. I want to."

SELFISH AND UNSELFISH CHILDREN

Mrs. W. H. writes:

"So many mothers write you of the selfish child, but my problem concerns the child who will give away any and everything she has to children, and they impose upon her.

"I could stop her from giving her things away, but I fear this will make her selfish. Her father is just the same, and is always being imposed upon by his friends. I have had to go on the playground and ask a child to give up Mary's skates as they were all she had."

ANSWER

Mary's age was omitted and that makes the problem harder. It is unusual for a child to give her things away so readily under five years of age. Evidently her home training has been such that unconsciously she has received the idea that giving away her things has a special virtue and she gets great satisfaction in so doing. I think it might be possible to show her that you want her to lend her things to other children, but that by giving them away she works a hardship on you, for you think she should have skates, for instance, to use, and you can only buy her one pair. Let her lend her things gladly and willingly, with the understanding that when the other child has played with them they are to come back to Mary. You can't in any other way teach her that possessions have a value.

THE OTHER SIDE

Mrs. R. F. K. writes:

"My boy of two and one-half plays with a child of three and comes home every day with his pockets full of the other child's playthings. He sneaks in quietly and keeps his hands behind his back, and then plays with them. What should I do if he told me an untruth about them?"

ANSWER

Don't give him a chance to tell you an untruth by not asking him any questions about whose toys they are. You know they do not belong to him so pick them up and tell him, "These are Bobby's toys, and you must take them back to him." March him right back with them, and do this as often as necessary, telling his playmate that your little boy enjoyed them so that he didn't understand that he was not to carry them away. He is too young to be accused of "stealing," he just needs to learn that what belongs to another is not to be taken away from that person. He'll learn it by not being allowed to do it, and understanding that you are upset about it.

Home Cooking Sale — Through the kindness of David Spencer Limited, Princess Patricia Lodge No. 238, Daughters of St. George, will hold a sale of home cooking in the basement on Saturday, September 15. Members are asked to bring donations early.

Early Drama In Canada Theme of Interesting Talk

At their first meeting after the Summer vacation, the Women's Educational Auxiliary to the United Church yesterday afternoon listened with interest to an address by Major Bullock-Webster on "The Early Drama in Canada."

The speaker traced the growth of the drama in Canada from the seventeenth century when the Indian tribes, including the Siwash tribes of British Columbia, presented in drama the legendary history of their people. In early days the French peoples of Eastern Canada were entertained by players from their own country, sometimes with discouragement from the Puritanic stock, but greatly enjoyed by the more aristocratic element.

British players also came as early as 1804—a Scotch player, Mr. Ormsby, also a small company from England, both of whom played in Montreal with varied success. In 1852 "Richard the Third" was put on by Sullivan, and in military plays one was put on and presented by no less famous a person than Charles Dickens, who was touring America in those early days.

Reference was made to the interest shown in the Little Theatre movement, notably in Toronto where the Hart House Theatre is doing good work.

The speaker predicted that talent in the growing field of drama in Canada might be logically looked for in this Province as the young people seemed, for some reason, to have more softly-modulated voices than those in the middle and eastern provinces, and quality of voice was a very important feature to be considered. Among those who ranked high in the profession and who claimed Canada as their country of birth were Maude Adams, Julia Arthur, Lena Ashwell and Margaret Anglin. Reference was also made to the excellent work being done by the student bodies of the high schools and universities.

Two of Major Bullock-Webster's pupils presented a delightful fantasy depicting the poetry of motion, and another pupil gave several readings with much success. Mrs. Graeme thanked the speaker and his pupils for the interesting programme. At the conclusion tea was served. Mrs. Watson presided at the gathering and Mrs. Arthur Dowell sang with much feeling.

SCOTTISH M.P. IN RESCUE COMEDY

Rosslyn Mitchell Fooled By Indian Squaw in Dugout Canoe

Vancouver, Sept. 14 (Canadian Press)—Rosslyn Mitchell, the Scottish M.P., who defeated Mr. Asquith at Paisley, Scotland, on a personal expenditure of twenty-seven pounds, was to-day the hero of a noble rescue that went astray.

It was a comedy of a squaw, a dugout canoe, a lighthouse keeper and a perilous position for Mr. Mitchell. With some friends, Mr. Mitchell was passing a rocky point in Stanley Park. The tide was racing fast. In the dugout the Indian squaw was paddling and poling with might and main to avoid being swept by the current. Excitedly, Mr. Mitchell clambered down the railings to the tide race. Behind him came the lighthouse keeper, armed with a rope, and shouting to Mr. Mitchell to "keep out of it."

In the excitement, the squaw alone was calm. She turned on both Mr. Mitchell and the lighthouse keeper a look of infinite pity and, with a swift push of her pole, drove her canoe to safety in the bay.

Mr. Mitchell remarked that he does not intend to attempt the rescue of any more Indian squaws.

An egg was fried on the sun-heated pavement in a New Jersey town during the heat wave.

St. Andrew's Guild — The Women's Guild of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church resumed their monthly meetings Monday afternoon with a splendid attendance of members. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Cochrane, Linden Avenue, Mrs. G. Sanson presiding. Plans for a rummage sale to be held on October 3, and the forthcoming bazaar to take place on December 1 were discussed. At the conclusion of the meeting a social half hour was spent, the hostess serving a delicious tea.

An Illustrated Series Breadmaking

by your "Fourex" Baker

HAVE you ever seen the Cree Indian making Beaver Tail Bannock, or the Mexican making Tortillas? Have you traversed the rural districts of Russia and seen the street baker with his old-time clay oven, or visited Palestine and tasted the "small loaves" of Biblical days, which still are the national bread?

Then come with your "Fourex" Baker during the next eight weeks on a picture tour of the world to Palestine, Mexico, Russia, South Africa, Australia, and other far away lands and see by pictures and words the many old-time methods of making bread which still exist today.

It has been truly said that the story of breadmaking is the most colorful and interesting of all world industries, and we feel sure you will find this illustrated series both interesting and instructive from beginning to end. It will also show you how Canada, the granary of the world, has taken the lead in the scientific making of bread.

To the Teaching Profession

This series should provide text for some interesting class talks on Canada's basic industry. As in the case of the "Romance of British Columbia," this series will also be presented over the familiar signature—4X Bread and Cakes.

Watch for them and clip them. Each picture will only appear once, and, if missed, cannot be replaced.

Jones and Perkins Lead in U.S. Golf

English Titleholder May Meet U.S. Champ In Tournament Final

In Semi-finals Jones Is Five Up on First Nine to Phillip Finlay, While Perkins Is Three Up on George Voight of New York; Perkins Downed Dawson Yesterday to Get Into Semi-final Round, While Jones Put Away Beck by Overwhelming Score

Newton, Mass., Sept. 14.—Bobby Jones, continuing his triumphant march in defence of his title, overwhelmed Phil G. Finlay, Harvard champion, and stood 9 up at the end of eighteen holes of their semi-final match to-day. In the other semi-final match, Phil Perkins, British titleholder, was 1 up on George Voight after a sensational battle to the half-way mark.

Braeburn Country Club, Newton, Mass., Sept. 14.—Phil Perkins, British amateur golf champion, was three up on George Voight, New York, at the end of the first nine holes of their semi-final match for the national title here to-day. Perkins gained his lead on the first hole, where he made a birdie three after slicing his drive.

Perkins collected another birdie on the ninth hole and this gave him an out card of par 35. Voight was out in 38.

Bobby Jones, the national champion, led Phillip Finlay, the Harvard golfer, 5 up at the end of the first nine holes of their thirty-six-hole match.

Finlay drew first blood at the second hole, where Jones was one over par, but the latter won the fourth with a birdie three and then every hole to the ninth, with the exception of the short sixth, where they halved par threes.

Jones's card showed three birdies for a medal of 34, one better than par. Finlay's read 42.

JONES ROUTS BECK

Bobby Jones, once more the ruthless par-smasher, galloped roughshod into the semi-finals in defence of his national amateur title yesterday by routing John Beck, the London cotton broker, 14 up and 13 to go, in as one-sided a match as the ancient tournament has ever witnessed.

While Jones was smothering his British rival, delivering the decisive blow at the thirty-second hole, after covering the first eighteen holes in a record-breaking 70, the rest of the quarter-finalists battled each other in a trio of exciting matches, two of which went to the thirty-fifth hole before being decided.

BEATS DAWSON

In them the British champion, T. P. Perkins, emerged triumphant over John Dawson of Chicago, 3 and 1, while George Voight, sensational New Yorker, stopped the advance of Dr. Oscar F. Willing of Portland, Ore., 4 and 3, and Phillip Finlay of Boston rallied to beat Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston of St. Paul, 2 and 1, in the biggest surprise of the day.

FIELDING IN FINE TRIM FOR WOODS BATTLE

Completed Training Last Night and is at Top of Fighting Form

Right on top of his fighting form as a result of some intensive training and a final workout last night, Tommy Fielding will go into his fight with Johnny Woods of Seattle to-morrow night with every chance to give the Sound City pugilist a hard battle. Fast and tricky, although lacking a knock-out-dealing wallop, the local fighter figures to keep Woods guessing for the whole ten rounds.

According to reports from Seattle, Woods is also in good fighting shape. He packs a mean right and will give Fielding something to worry about in this direction.

The five-bout card will get under way at 8.30 o'clock sharp at the Sons of Canada Hall, Promoter Joe Bayley announced to-day. Tickets have been selling well and a full house is practically assured.

In the preliminaries, several good boys are matched from both cities. All the bouts except one will have an international flavor, the first being between Charlie Bradshaw and Seaman Jennings.

The card, in order of the events, is as follows:

138 lbs.—Four rounds: C. Bradshaw vs. Seaman Jennings.

108 lbs.—Four rounds: Jumbo Davis vs. Matthews, Seattle.

125 lbs.—Four rounds: Danny Pastro vs. Don Barclay, Seattle.

126 lbs.—Four rounds: Tim Keist vs. Curley Bernstein, Seattle.

130 lbs.—Main event, ten rounds: Tommy Fielding vs. Johnny Woods, Seattle.

Champ Eliminated In Women's Golf

Beaconsfield Golf Course, Que., Sept. 14.—Miss Helen Payson of Portland, Maine, defending champion, was eliminated from the women's Canadian golf championship of the second round, played here yesterday.

Mrs. Lee Mida of Chicago, who entered the tournament a big favorite, defeated Miss Payson, five and four and is now regarded as the player to beat for the crown.

Mrs. Mida made the turn in 38, and was one up. In the top match in the upper bracket, Miss Virginia Wilson, Chicago, who scored a 73 in the qualifying round Monday, beat Marjorie Kayden of Schenectady, N.Y., 5 and 3.

ALL-STAR RUGBY TEAM BACK FROM AUSTRALIA TOUR

British Players Passengers on R.M.S. Niagara, on Way Back Home

Fresh from winning laurels in Australia and New Zealand where they won two out of three test matches in each series, the British all-star team of the English Rugby League were passengers on the R.M.S. Niagara, docking this morning en route to their homes in Great Britain. The team won four games out of six in the test matches played in the two Dominions.

Thirty members of the party, under G. E. Osborne, manager, and Fred Hutchins, secretary, took advantage of the tie-up at the Outer Wharf this morning to slip ashore and see something of Victoria for themselves. Fit and bronzed with their six months' excursion "down under" the party hailed the opportunity of returning through Canada with zest, and are eager to see this Dominion.

Their prowess in the test matches was lightly put aside by members of the team to-day, the only statement they would vouchsafe being that they had had a wonderful reception, and were pleased with the success of their tour. The party will have passed around the world on its return to England, having gone to Australia via the Suez Canal. On the voyage across on the Niagara to this coast they were the life of the ship, and many regretted that a pleasant voyage was to end to-day.

Giants Headed For Major Ball Record

Have Won Three Doubleheaders in a Row and Fourth Will Give Them Record; Chicago Cubs Steal Easy Victory From Cardinals and First Three Teams in National League Are Now Racing Neck and Neck Toward Pennant; Yanks and Athletics Idle

New York, Sept. 14.—Echoes of 1908 are heard along the baseball stretch as major league teams thunder on toward what now looks like the greatest dual finish since the memorable season of Merkle's failure to touch second. Detroit won Ban Johnson's pennant by half a game twenty years ago, while the Cubs broke a tie in the standing with the Giants only by beating the McGraw clan 4-2 in a playoff the day after the regular season closed.

Hard campaigning in the next two weeks may loosen the 1928 races, but for the moment, anyhow, John Heydler's three contenders are more closely bunched than were the Giants, Cubs and Pirates in 1908.

The American League to-day has only two teams in the running against the four which battled twenty years ago, but the Yanks and the Athletics promise to make up in drama what they lack in numbers.

The National League situation became even more tense yesterday when Fred Blake led the Cubs to a 6-1 victory over the leading Cardinals as the Giants took a third straight doubleheader from the Boston Braves. The Giants won the first easily behind Benton's fine pitching, 12 to 2 and then fought to the finish for the second, 7 to 6.

Blake not only held the Cardinals to four hits, but collected two with his own bat.

The Giants continued their hard hitting at Boston, getting 16 hits in the first game and fifteen in the second. Leslie Mann and Travis hit homers in the first contest, making Benton's road all the more easy to his twenty-fourth victory and his twenty-sixth complete game.

In the remaining National League engagement, Brooklyn closed its season's business in Philadelphia by winning 10 to 0.

If the Giants can win their remaining double-header against the Braves to-day they not only will have set a new major league record for all time in winning four straight twin bills, but will have exacted their full toll from the two tailenders after a rather poor start against Boston in particular.

In the only American League game played, the Browns beat the Sox at St. Louis 6-4.

Manush, who trails "Goose" Goslin of the Senators for American League batting honors, connected with a circuit wallop, a two-bagger and a pair of singles in as many times to the plate.

He Pays 'em To Fight —By Jimmie Thompson

Canada, too, has her Tex Rickard. He is Playfair Brown, the shrewd and affable fight promoter of Toronto, who has engineered all the major boxing events staged in this country, and won an enviable reputation for being able to draw the crowds. True, Playfair's popularity was punctured temporarily at least by the Godfrey-Gains bout a few weeks ago, in which the crowd was sent home far short of its money's worth after the principals had exchanged a few preliminary passes, one of which was slightly below Gain's belt, thereby earning him an easy decision on the score of a foul. For a while after this the boys grumbled that Brown's bouts were more like a peace conference than a fight. However, they gave him one more chance and were rewarded by the very snappy contest which was staged on Tuesday evening between Steve Rocco, the Canadian flyweight champion, and Marty Gold, the smart Philadelphia boxer. The winner of this very pretty affair will probably be matched shortly with Frankie Genaro for the world's title.

Names of Hornsby And McGraw Linked In Racing Scandal

Telephone Bill For Alleged "Racing Tips" Leads to Investigation

Chicago, Sept. 14.—A telephone company's bill to Jockey C. E. Allen for long distance calls, including calls to Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Boston Braves, and John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, to-day precipitated a "race tipping" investigation by the Illinois Turf Association.

The Tribune said the association, of which Stuyvesant Headly is president, will seek to determine if there has been any organized broadcasting of information concerning what the paper spoke of as "presumably fixed races."

TO HORNSBY AND McGRAW

A facimile of the telephone company's letter to Allen brought the names of Hornsby and McGraw into the matter. The letter, addressed to Allen at the Arlington racetrack requested that he make payment of $550.07 "for telephone service furnished your wife, Catherine E. Allen, over telephone lines, in a fashionable North Side apartment hotel.

"Practically all of the bill," the letter said, "is for toll calls made to various cities throughout the country during the months of June and July of this year, calling among others Rogers Hornsby and John McGraw."

DENIES IT

Allen, asked about it, said he was not married, and that he had never lived at the hotel where the calls were made. Clerks at the hotel said a Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen had resided there during July and August, but there was no resemblance between "C. Allen" and Jockey Allen.

An itemized bill for the tolls showed that a call was made to Boston July 27, three days after Hornsby's ball club had returned to the home grounds after a swing through the West. Most of the calls for which the telephone company seeks to collect were made in the week of July 21-28, the bill for that week alone being $477. A review of races for the week made by The Tribune showed that Allen rode only one winner in that time. In the seventh race, July 23, he brought Turquoise home in front at odds of 8 to 1. He rode a dozen losers during the period.

When the telephone company bill was received, Allen turned it over to a friend to take up with the company.

KNOWS NOTHING

"I know nothing about these calls, and that's all there is to it," he was quoted as saying.

Last year Hornsby was sued for $92,000 by a bookmaker, who claimed Hornsby owed that sum in connection with race track deals.

K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, was asked if there was any rule of organized baseball forbidding players to wager on horseraces.

"We had a discussion of that at a baseball meeting at French Lick," he said. "I don't care to talk about it. Look it up in your rule books."

LADIES TO PLAY FOR B.C. TITLES

Rainbows Will Oppose Connaughts in Softball Championship Game

The Connaughts of Vancouver and the Rainbows, Victoria title-holders, will clash in a sudden-death tussle for the British Columbia ladies' softball championship on the Royal Athletic Park diamond at 3.15 o'clock to-morrow.

The visitors hold the Mainland League championship, which they won from South Hill by two straight victories. The local nine are anxious to win this crucial fight, as it will mean they will hold the first ladies' provincial softball title. However, the invaders boast a strong team, and the Rainbows will have to go the limit to defeat them.

There will also be base-running, throwing and batting competitions staged in conjunction with the game.

SOCCER NOTES

Football activities for the week-end include a meeting this evening and two practice games to-morrow.

The Victoria City senior and junior teams will meet in the Veterans of France rooms at 8 o'clock to-night to make arrangements for the coming season.

To-morrow the Saanich Thistles and James Island will play a practice game on the Central Park grounds at 3 p.m., while the Maple Leaf juveniles will turn out two teams to play on the same grounds at 11 a.m.

The Y.M.C.A. junior football team held a workout in the gymnasium last night. All the players and any others interested, are asked to be at the "Y" at 2.30 p.m. sharp, Saturday, for an outdoor practice.

PLENTY OF GAME FOR OPENING OF HUNTING SEASON

Deer Reported in Many Localities; Blue Grouse Fairly Good

Hunters Will Start To-morrow Morning on Annual Deer and Grouse War

Victoria huntsmen were to-day busily engaged in cleaning their guns in preparation for the opening of the hunting season to-morrow. Blue grouse and buck deer will be lawful after sunrise and, according to reports, there will be plenty of both.

Indicative of the number of hunters who will be out for the opening day is the large number of licenses issued already. During the last few days sporting goods stores have been handling a lot of business in the hunting line and report that there will be plenty of potting in the hills and valleys first thing to-morrow.

The law this year on alien licenses is being more strictly enforced than in some years past. This provides for no person other than a British subject to purchase a license for the usual amount of $2.50. Game licenses for aliens cost $10.00.

Young Tennis Star Holds Henri Cochet

Gregory Mangin, of Newark, Leads French Wizard When Game in United States Championship Is Called on Account of Rain; Only Two Matches at Forest Hills To-day; Semi-finals To-morrow and Final Monday

Forest Hills, N.Y., Sept. 14.—Rain, putting an abrupt end to play in the quarter-final round of the national tennis championship late yesterday afternoon, found the Americans uniformly successful in jousts with foreign players. If they can hold their advantage when play is resumed this afternoon they will have the semi-final bracket entirely to themselves and all chance of a foreign triumph in this classic tournament will have passed.

Even the great Henri Cochet, of France, was on the short end of the count when the downpour sent gallery and players scurrying. A youthful American, Gregory Mangin, of Newark, was playing the role of giant killer with dazzling success, having taken the first set by a score of 6-4, while Cochet had won the single game played in the second set only after a bitter fight, although he had the advantage of service.

IS NEWCOMER

Mangin is twenty and a comparative newcomer to championship tennis, but it was a player still more youthful, two years his junior, to be exact, who scored the one complete international victory of the day.

So much for the younger generation. It remained for Francis T. Hunter, the New Rochelle, N.Y., veteran of 33, who Wednesday defeated Jean Borotra, to more than hold his own in a gripping battle with the third foreign survivor, nonchalant young Jack Crawford, of Australia. Hunter led by scores of 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, when the match was called.

The last of the four quarter-final tilts brought together two of America's foremost stars, George Lott winning by impressive scores of 6-2, 6-2, 7-5, over Johnny Doeg, of Santa Monica, Cal.

MISS WILLS TO PLAY

After a conference lasting nearly one hour, the officials and players involved decided that the matches will be continued where they were interrupted by rain instead of being played over. To-day is devoted to finishing the Hunter-Crawford and Cochet-Mangin battles. Miss Helen Wills also will play an exhibition against a man opponent.

This will force the playing of the semi-final round Saturday and the final Monday.

A big surprise was in store for the spectators when Mangin, a well-knit, good-looking youth of twenty, took the court against Cochet. He is ranked only twenty-sixth among the players of the United States, but he was playing tennis yesterday that would have beaten almost any man in the world.

COCHET ANNOYED

Cochet, on the other hand, was plainly nettled because of the noise made by the enthusiastic gallery, which found plenty to applaud and cheer about in Mangin's play. He raised his hand for quiet once and played very soberly, almost resentfully.

Whether or not this disturbed his game, he dropped three in a row, winning only two points in them, after having taken the long-drawn first game on his service at nine points to seven. There were many passing shots by both players, knife-like stabs which whistled down the sidelines or into corners. At this Mangin was as good as the superstar whom Bill Tilden has called the best player in the world when at top form and Bill Johnston has styled a remarkably improved player this year.

The day's results were:

George M. Lott Jr. defeated John Doeg, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

Frank Shields defeated Jacques Brugnon, 7-5, 6-2, 6-0.

Frank Hunter led Jack Crawford, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.

Gregory Mangin led Henri Cochet, 6-4, 0-1.

VETERANS' SINGLES

Henry Bassord defeated S. Jarvis Adams, 6-3, 6-4.

Phillip B. Hawk defeated Paul Martin, 6-2, 4-6, 7-5.

A. J. Cawse defeated Walter Hayes, 6-2, 6-2.

Fred C. Baggs defeated King Smith, 9-7, 6-0.

HARRY JONES IS BEATEN IN JASPER GOLF

Former Winner of Totem Trophy Loses to A. Bull; Vic Gravlin Beaten

Jasper Park Lodge, Sept. 14.—The elimination of Harry Jones, Vancouver, former winner of the silver totem pole trophy, yesterday was the surprise of the second round to decide the semi-finalists in the championship competition now in progress over the Jasper Park Lodge course. Jones went down to defeat, 3 and 2, to A. Bull of Vancouver, after leading his opponent most of the way to the turn. On the inward journey Jones went completely off his iron play, while Bull settled down to steady golf and his methodical play gave him a lead which Jones was not able to overcome.

ON HOME GREEN

Monty Hall of Vancouver and K. C. Allen of Winnipeg fought a keen battle and it was not until the home green that the Manitoban conceded the honors to his opponent, 2 down. R. Symes of Vancouver had little difficulty winning from Vic. Gravlin of Victoria, who showed a reversal of his steady form of earlier in the week. J. B. Starkey of Edmonton played an exceptionally strong game, disposing

Victoria Caps Enter Fight For B.C. Ball Title Here To-night

Arrangements Are Switched and First Game of Series With Britannia Beach, of Vancouver, Scheduled at 4.45 p.m. To-day at Royal Athletic Park; Forbes to Do Twirling Game for Locals in Opener With Dangerfield for Second Game; Good Crowd Expected

With Norm Forbes, the popular speed artist, on the mound, the Victoria Capitals this afternoon enter into a two-game series with Britannia Beach of Vancouver for the British Columbia senior "B" baseball title. The game is scheduled to start at 4.45 o'clock at the Royal Athletic Park and a record crowd is expected.

Late arrangements caused the cancellation of the decision to hold the first game of the series in Vancouver to-morrow, the change being made to suit the Vancouver players, who are anxious to get the series over. Matt Hunter, president of the B.C.A.B.A., received world at a late hour last night that the Britannias wished to finish the play-off before the end of the week and the switching of the games to this city was necessary.

CAPS HAVE GOOD CHANCE

The Capitals are conceded a good chance of copping the "B" honors for the Province. After a nice rest, the boys are all full of pep and raring to go. Forbes has his speedy slants working to perfection and the Vancouver players will need quick eyes to catch one of his fast ones.

Fresh from a gruelling series on the Mainland, the Britannias are reputedly in fine shape, although the recent games may have robbed them of some of their efficiency. They defeated the Knights of Columbus two straight games for the Mainland honors.

THE TEAMS

Bill Moore is doing the receiving for the Capitals to-night, while the rest of the team is composed of the following players: Ross Oatman, Art Minnis, Heb Cummings, Art Webster, Murty Dunn, Jack McKenzie, Jack Curtis, Tommy Wachter, Jack Noble, Tommy Bowden and Cy Milne.

The squad brought over from the Mainland is composed of nice-looking ball-tossers, but whether they will be able to measure up to the standard of the Capitals remains to be seen. They have a couple of good pitchers in Cadenhead and Kozak, the former a righthander and the latter a southpaw. The remainder of the team is: Clark c, Evett cf, Tolmie 3b, Hayden 2b, Sinclair ss, Neilson 1b, Runge lf and Wilson rf.

The second game of the series will be staged at the Athletic Park to-morrow afternoon, commencing at 4.15 o'clock, Dangerfield will pitch for the Capitals.

LAWN BOWLING

When you cut corn off the cob, unless you have a very sharp knife, try running a kitchen fork down each row of kernels. This removes the whole kernel very nicely.

Tuxeda Sam place $10.65, show $6.15. Clarimonde Hope show $11.00. Winner ch g 3, Over There-Eagle's Nest, trained by J. G. Givens. Scratched: (3164) Chick Bell. Overweight: Tennessee (4), Catch Me (1). Standing start good. Won driving to the limit. Eagle's Home, from a fast inside break, forced the issue throughout and stood a long drive nobly. Clarimonde Hope, pinched off at the break, was rushed into contention quickly and gave her best. Tuxeda Sam well ridden closed with a powerful rush and would have won in another stride. Greekling ran a good race.

NORTON WINS HANDICAP IN NICE FINISH

Odds on Favorite, Lovecharm Is Beaten in Feature at Colwood Track

Noses Only Separate First Three Horses in Big Race For "Babies"

The defeat of Lovecharm, odds on favorite for the Juvenile Handicap, the day's feature, and the victory of Eagle's Home, a 10 to 1 shot were highlights of yesterday's racing at Colwood.

After showing fine form on its last two outs at the local track, Lovecharm seemed a cinch to take the honors and was quoted at 4 to 5 on the totalizators. The pace set by Wooly Meteor and Shoreboat was too fast however and although making a game effort with his usual fast end rush Lovecharm was too short and finished fourth. Norton, a 5 to 1 shot closed a huge gap in the stretch and in the last jump got a nose decision to win. It was one of the prettiest finishes seen this meet with three noses right on the wire, and speaks considerable for the ability of the handicapper. Extension got the second call with Wooly Meteor third.

Mudders got to the front in the last two races as heavy rain started to fall and the track, wet from Wednesday's rain, got pretty soggy. Laying behind Virginia Morse, the pacemaker, until the last turn, Eagle's Home came into the stretch leading by half a length over Clarimonde, the third choice, and then stood a long drive up the stretch to win by half a length from Tuxeda Sam who closed with a terrific rush in the stretch to get the place. Chula Vista, the favorite, although just behind the pacemakers for most of the distance was unable to get up in the stretch.

FAVORITES WIN

The first four events were favorites' races, the first choice winning the first and second, the second choice the third and fourth. Judge Hickman, a red-hot favorite, won the first well in hand, going into the lead on the back stretch, after which he was never headed. Albert L., the second choice was easily second best, two lengths behind the winner, with Carlisle an outsider, third.

Felicitous and Tee Hee, the field entry in the second, ran in first and second places all the way and finished with Felicitous two and a half lengths in front. Irish Jury was third.

MOONCHILD WINS

Moonchild was an easy winner in the third, going to the front right after the break and maintaining her advantage to the finish, to take a two-and-a-half-length decision. Miss Fountain was second and Tatters third, with Jimmie Trinz, the favorite, out of the money.

Cleo's Rochester went to the front on the first turn in the mile fourth race and was never caught, although Shadow Spark was closing with a terrific rush in the stretch to finish second. Torsida won third money in the last jump, taking a nose decision from The Chamberlain.

OUTSIDER LEADS

The punters held their breath for a while in the sixth when Yorkshire Maid, the longest shot in the race, went out on top and opened up a gap of four lengths. John Franklin lay second and when the pacemaker began to tire came through to win by half a length. St. Martin's the favorite, closed with a fast closing rush to get the place and Yorkshire Maid lasted for third.

O.C. Football Games to Affect League Leaders

London, Sept. 14.—Saturday fixtures in the First Division of the English Soccer League should produce a number of close contests, chief of which is likely to be the meeting at Derby of Derby County and Sheffield Wednesday. Both teams have started the season aggressively and are putting up a stiff fight for the league leadership. The cupholders, Blackburn Rovers, who have begun none too well, will entertain Portsmouth, who have demonstrated themselves to be a strong aggregation at home, but a weak team on foreign territory. Everton, league champs, will be at home to Manchester City and should win.

Burnley, another team which got off on the right foot this season, go to Bury and look like picking up a couple of points. Leeds United, who have made a very favorable impression on their return to senior company, travel to Huddersfield and dopesters pick the Leeds team to get not worse than a draw.

Baker of Vancouver, wife of last year's winner of the silver totem pole trophy, and Mrs. K. C. Allen of Winnipeg, former Manitoba champion, both advanced to the semi-final stage by default.

B.C.E.R. DEAL SHOWS NEED OF UTILITY BOARD

Clearihue Assails Electrical Rates Here in Fighting Convention Speech

Demands Full Control of Power Concerns and Subsidiaries

Trail, B.C., Sept. 14—"We must control these monopolies before they arrive at the point of controlling us," declared Alderman J. B. Clearihue of Victoria in moving at the Union of B.C. Municipalities convention yesterday a resolution calling upon the Provincial Government to place power and other utility companies of the Province under the control of law.

The resolution, which was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted, was as follows:

"That the provincial government be requested to enact legislation making provision for a public utilities commission with effective powers to control the rates, capitalization and contracts of all public utility companies and their subsidiaries, based upon sound principles of law and economics, which principles should be set out in such legislation."

The resolution was the product of a special committee and the chief speakers were Alderman Clearihue and Mayor T. A. Love of Grand Forks, whose city has been engaged for two years in a bitter controversy with the West Kootenay Power and Light Company over an effort on the part of the latter to raise the wholesale rate to the city of Grand Forks from 2½ to 3 cents per kilowatt hour.

Two events of the last year had brought this question to the fore, said Alderman Clearihue, the purchase and recapitalization of the B.C. Electric and the Grand Forks dispute with the West Kootenay company. Both corporations, because of the fact that by their nature they could not be regulated by competition, were gigantic monopolies, he said.

The B.C. Electric had been purchased by eastern interests and its capitalization raised from $25,000,000 to $80,000,000. None of this new capital went into the company's assets, he said, but apparently went into the pockets of financiers. The vendors had made a large profit on their undertaking, he stated, and the question arose, "If the B.C. Electric is worth that $80,000,000, where did they get it?"

SEES "EXCESSIVE RATES"

"My suggestion is that they got the portion over and above the original capital out of profits in last year's operations," said Alderman Clearihue. "Such a profit must have come from excessive rates. Mr. Kidd said in Vancouver that the new owners would be content with 3½ per cent. That is $2,800,000, which would be a rate of eleven per cent on the old capital of $25,000,000, but in Toronto I understand he also said that the new stock would earn five per cent. That would be $4,000,000 or sixteen per cent on the old capital.

"We can justly say, therefore, that the company has been earning from eleven to sixteen per cent on its former capital. But they have been paying only eight per cent dividends and the remainder has been put into extensions and new plant.

"That may be good business for an ordinary company, but a public utility company which has a monopoly should not finance itself out of profits, but by raising new capital.

BUILDING ON PROFITS

"In recent years the B.C. Electric has raised only $5,000,000 of new capital by sale of securities in capital outlay. It is obvious they have been building up renewals and additions to plant out of profits on rates. Should a public utility be permitted to do so?

"The answer is found in the decisions of utility boards in many cases across the line, as they should not.

"Let us look at some of the rates charged. Vancouver pays 4 cents per kilowatt hour and 2 cents over a certain consumption. Point Grey and other suburbs pay 5 and 2 cents.

In Ontario the city of Windsor, 238 miles from the source of power, pays only 1.6 cents, and Ottawa, close to its power source, like Vancouver, pays only .9 cents. Even farms in Ontario get 5 and 4 cent rates, although the cost of distribution is much greater than in a city.

GRAND FORKS' RATES

"The West Kootenay is seeking to charge Grand Forks 3 cents wholesale, but in Trail it retails power at 1.6 cents. There is a big difference in those rates, and it would appear that the West Kootenay is seeking to make outside districts pay high rates in order to supply cheap power to its own company, the Consolidated at Trail, and the city adjacent.

"It has been suggested that the Water Board is the proper tribunal but we already find that the powers of that board would have to be amended, as it can only control the actual licensee and these companies have both deliberately organized themselves in chains for the purpose of getting away from the board's jurisdiction.

"The company that has the license usually does not sell direct to the public. There are other problems besides water questions for a board to deal with, such as gas and telephone rates, so that we need a new tribunal.

"The time has come to establish a real public utilities commission in British Columbia.

CONTROL SUBSIDIARIES

"I suggest that the principles on which the commission is to work should be set out in the legislation.

"The act should provide some control of subsidiary companies and over the capitalization of these companies and with the public.

"Power is becoming one of the most dangerous monopolies of modern times. Twenty companies control eighty-three per cent of the power supplied in the United States, and the number is growing less.

"Are we going to regulate this monopoly before it begins to regulate us?"

RATES UP 400 PER CENT

Mayor Love said that the experience of Grank Forks, which had spent $4,000 proving the uselessness of the Water Board in dealing with rates, showed the necessity of a utility commission. Stabilization of rates was needed. Grand Forks had once had a one cent rate, but it had been increased 400 per cent, and the city had finally decided to have a showdown.

Colwood

Colwood, Sept. 14—The September meeting of the Colwood Women's Institute will be held Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 26. The programme of the meeting will be announced later.

A well-attended meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to St. John's Church was held Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 11. Initial plans are being made for a sale of work.

Morning service will be held at St. John's Church Sunday, Sept. 16, at 11 a.m.

Science has never devised a surer method of securing complete laxative action than the chewing of "Feen-a-mint."

As you chew one of these dainty, mint-flavored tablets, the tasteless, non-habit-forming laxative principle in "Feen-a-mint"—phenolphthalein (yellow)—is thoroughly mixed with the saliva before it reaches the stomach.

It is thus readily diffused throughout the intestinal tract and, without any shock or after effect, clears the system of poisons.

Those who adopt this new method of ending internal inactivity enjoy better health and the beauty that comes therefrom.

NIAGARA BRINGS PROMINENT LIST FROM ANTIPODES

First Cabin List Composed of Cosmopolitan Gathering of World People

Governor of New South Wales Is Passenger, En Route to England

With a cosmopolitan list of travelers from all parts of the world, including opera singers, statesmen, merchants, business men, sportsmen and globe trotters, the Canadian Australasian liner Niagara docked at the Rithet piers here this morning at 7.30 o'clock from Sydney, Auckland, Suva and Honolulu. With this varied list of travelers and with splendid weather conditions, the three-week trip which the Niagara terminated at this port this morning has been the most delightful since she has been in operation. Capt. J. Spring Brown, commander of the liner, reported all went well during the voyage.

GOOD LIST

There were 269 passengers in all classes on the liner when she docked this morning. Of these, 105 were traveling in the first cabin, 102 in the second and sixty-two in the third. A large number of passengers left the liner at this port, mostly people destined to the United States, who will sail on the C.P.R. steamer this afternoon at 4.30 o'clock for Seattle, where they will entrain this evening for their various destinations.

LIGHT CARGO

Cargo on the liner this trip was comparatively light, there only being 1,315 tons in all in the holds of the big ship. Fifty-six tons were left at this port, consisting mostly of New Zealand butter and cheese for local merchants. The mail consignment was made up of 600 bags for the United Kingdom, 120 bags for the United States and thirty-one bags for the local post office.

PROMINENT PASSENGERS

Among the prominent passengers traveling in the first saloon of the liner were Admiral Sir Dudley de Chair, K.C.B., M.V.O., Governor of New South Wales, Australia, en route to England; Arthur Buesst, conductor of the British National Opera Company; William Dillingham of Honolulu, son of a prominent family of the Hawaiian Islands; Mrs. Fielding Jones, returning from a world tour to her home in Providence, R.I.; Madame Marion Frank, completing a concert tour of Australia and New Zealand; C. H. Tindale, Australian customs representative, returning to New York with Mrs. Tindale; W. R. Urquhart of the Goodyear Rubber Company of New York; Professor Osborne, professor at the University of Manitoba, at Winnipeg; H. C. Smith, connected with the National Dairy Association of New Zealand, accompanied by Mrs. Smith.

The liner left at 9.15 o'clock for Vancouver. She will sail outbound for the Antipodes from that port and Victoria next Wednesday evening.

Doncaster, Eng., Sept. 14 (Canadian Press Cable)—Sol Joel's six-year-old horse Pons Asinorum won the Doncaster Cup to-day by a length from Aga Khan's three-year-old Silver Hussar.

The betting was 6 to 1 on Pons Asinorum, 9 to 4 against Silver Hussar and 100 to 8 against First Flight.

The Doncaster Cup is one of the best long distance handicaps in this country, being over a distance of two and one-quarter miles. About $5,000 is added to the cup.

Fresh fruit pie is really more attractive when only one crust is used. Strips of crust can hold it side by side, or made open and served with powdered sugar sprinkled over the top, it is delicious.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—Capt. Samuel S. Sandberg, California member of the United States Shipping Board, placed San Francisco Harbor's annual business as seventh largest in the country in an address he delivered here to-day. The speech was made at a luncheon given in his honor by the Pacific American Steamship Association and the Shipowners' Association of the Pacific Coast. Sandberg declared San Francisco port handled one-fifth of all foreign trade on the Pacific Coast during 1927. Members of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce attended the luncheon.

Eighty-two California delegates to the annual convention of the United Spanish war veterans will leave here to-morrow on the Panama Pacific liner California for Havana, Cuba, the convention site. Clarence A. Son, commander of the department of California, heads the delegation.

which will arrive at William Head to-morrow morning at 5 o'clock, according to a wireless dispatch received at the local offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway this morning, from Capt. A. J. Hosken. Rover Docks Here For First Time Since Collision

For the first time since she crashed into the freighter Calmar off the north California Coast, two weeks ago, the Canadian National freighter Canadian Rover docked at the Ogden Point Piers at 1 p.m. to-day little the worse for her mishap.

Following the accident in a dense fog, the Rover put into San Francisco, where a survey of her hull was made. Minor dents were repaired and she proceeded on her voyage from the West Coast of Vancouver Island to San Diego.

The Calmar was badly damaged and is now undergoing repairs at shipbuilding yards in San Francisco.

The Rover had eighty tons of general cargo for this port.

MARINE NOTES

With passengers and cargo for Victoria and Seattle, the O.S.K. liner Arabia Maru is now en route here from China and Japan. She sailed from Yokohama on September 12, and will arrive here September 24.

The C.P.R. motor ferry Princess Elaine is still stuck on the ways at the Victoria Machinery Depot, while plans are being made for the launching of the vessel. New equipment will have to be erected, as if the ship was being launched for the first time, experts believe.

With thirty-five passengers and a light consignment of freight for this port, the Pacific Steamship Company's coastwise liner Emma Alexander docked at the Rithet piers here at 9.30 o'clock last night. She left at 11 o'clock for Seattle.

With a fair passenger list and a capacity cargo the O.S.K. liner Arizona Maru will sail from Seattle and Victoria on Monday afternoon en route to China and Japan.

The Pacific Redwood, in the service of the Dimon Steamship Corporation, sailed from Tacoma Thursday with a shipment of doors and dressed lumber for the Atlantic Coast.

LIQUOR INQUIRY LEAGUE PLAN

Geneva, Sept. 14.—The opponents of alcohol won a partial victory to-day by getting the economic committee of the League of Nations to approve a resolution for an investigation concerning the abuse of strong drink. The wets were not entirely vanquished because they succeeded in having wines, beers and cider eliminated from the proposed inquiry.

The resolution provided that the health committee of the League should institute the inquiry and collect statistics and similar information concerning abusive use of spirits and deleterious effects of alcohol of poor quality.

The Irish Free State delegate jocularly reminded the committee that "bad alcohol can not possibly refer to Irish whisky."

OPERA SINGERS FEATURE LIST

Several Well-known Stars Passengers on Niagara From Antipodes

Passengers on R.M.S. Niagara, which arrived here this morning from the Antipodes, had a more enjoyable passage than usual because in the first cabin of the liner there were a number of well-known grand opera stars who have been touring the cities of Australia and New Zalannd. Fellow passengers reported they were most generous with their talents and gave concerts practically every evening with a grand concert last night.

Leading the list of notable singers was Madame Marion Frank of the Royal Opera Company of Berlin and Budapest, whose contralto voice was heard on numerous occasions in formal concert in the lounge and music rooms.

Others of note in the world of grand opera music were Arthur Buesst, conductor of the British National Opera Company, which has been on tour in the Antipodes. Mr. Buesst is an accompanist of note, and presided at the piano at the ship concerts.

F. A. Adams, known to the musical world as Fraser Gange, was also a passenger, accompanied by Mrs. Gange. Mr. Gange is the possessor of a wonderful baritone voice, and his wife, although not famous, sings soprano. Sixth race—Six furlongs: Doctor Fred, $3.10, $3.10, $2.80; Wiskarrow, $12.60, $7.20; Majeste, $12.40. Time, 1.54.

New York, Sept. 14—Scoring his first victory since his accident at Saratoga last month, Linus (Pony) McAtee rode Sun Edwin to an easy win in the Jerome Handicap at Belmont Park yesterday. The winner, well played at 17 to 10, ran the mile in the fast time of 1.36 4-5 to win by five lengths from Royal Stranger, the favorite. Sublevado finished third. The race was worth $3,600.

Sun Edwin jumped away to a fast lead and McAtee let him run easily about a length ahead. Royal Stranger made a bid at the turn but Sun Edwin easily pulled away from the favorite. Sublevado, after running second most of the way, was passed in the stretch.

At Arlington Park, Grandad, ridden by Dubelle, took the feature event, a mile and a sixteenth affair for three-year-olds. The winner took the lead at the start and finished easily two lengths ahead of Isostasy, which beat out Padona by a nose for the place. Grandad paid $5.22 for a $2 mutuel ticket and covered the distance over a fast track in 1.48 4-5.

The Goodwood purse, worth $1,400, feature at Thorncliffe, went to Harry Baker with Quick Return second and Alans Bay third. Harry Baker was favorite, paying $3.30 in the mutuel betting.

New York, Sept. 13.—Harry Payne Whitney's Lisa, bay daughter of Mad Hatter and Bellefontaine, won the Tomboy Handicap for two-year-old fillies, best offering on Belmont Park's card yesterday. Lisa, paying 8 to 1, ran the five and a half furlongs in 1.06 1-5. The race was worth $3,950.

Lisa closed gamely under the whip to win going away by half a length from Mrs. F. A. Clark's Aquastella, with the Glen Ridge Farm's filly On Her Toes, the favorite, third, a length and a half further back.

McCulloch took Arlington's feature, a mile and a furlong gallop for three-year-olds and up, and ran the distance in 1.59 over a heavy track. True Boy was second by four lengths and Flora M. third. McCulloch broke fast and led all the way, although the finish was a driving one.

Shasta Gold was the best of a six-horse field in the fifth at Bainbridge. Dunmore was second and Polvo third. The winner ran the mile and seventy yards in 1.44 3-5.

First Pick finished no better than second behind Play Hour in the third at Fairmount, but paid $83.32 for $2 to place.

MILTON CLEANS YOUR FALSE TEETH PERFECTLY

LEAVE THEM IN MILTON WHILE YOU SLEEP OR DRESS

The Milton methods are simplicity itself: Just this while you sleep—If you take out your plate at night, add half-a-teaspoonful of Milton to the glass or cup of cold water in which you leave it. In the morning rinse it in clean cold water. Or this while you dress—If you sleep with your false teeth in, put them, on rising, into a glass containing equal parts of Milton and warm water (just enough fluid to cover the plate). When you are dressed, take them out, rinse and wipe.

In both cases the result will be—teeth glistening, gold parts glittering, not a trace of 'film,' food or grease, and a plate utterly free from infection. Not the slightest harm to the plate, teeth or mouth (ask your dentist). Of all dealers, 35¢, 65¢ or $1.

NAVY LEAGUE I.O.D.E. RESUMES MEETINGS

The Navy League Chapter, I.O.D.E., held its monthly meeting yesterday in the new headquarters, Union Bank Building, the members expressing their admiration of the cheery rooms. A standing tribute was paid to the memory of the late Mrs. Henry Croft, the regent, Mrs. Mortimer Appleby, speaking of her work for the order.

The gathering offered to co-operate with the luncheon to be given for the Amputations' Association conference. The regent, Mrs. Appleby, was appointed to represent the chapter on the Navy League of Canada, Victoria branch, and on the new auxiliary, and also the chapter will subscribe to The Sailor. The regent reported that the Cross of Sacrifice at Ross Bay had been decorated during August.

Plans were made for an evening bridge party at the Empress Hotel on October 23. In response to a letter from Miss A. B. Cooke, the chapter decided to order 140 patriotic calendars for distribution.

Taking a jury trial by choice, Massa Singh, charged with assaulting Jennie McQueen, and occasioning actual bodily harm, was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 to-day before Judge McIntosh in the County Court. W. C. Moresby, K.C., appeared for the Crown. Massa Singh was told to appear on November 13, at the Fall assizes, as he selected that method of trial after committal for hearing in the lower courts.

After singing in an undertone while the prosecution in the Saanich Police Cour yesterday was calling witnesses to testify against him on a charge of theft, Walter Nicholls appeared on remanded proceedings in the same court to-day, when the charge against him was withdrawn. The man is to receive medical care, it was stated, in the abandonment of the prosecution. E. L. Tait appeared for the municipality.

Lee Gob and sixty-nine other Chinese, found in a gaming house by Chief Fry and city police last night in a sudden raid on Fisgard Street premises, pleaded guilty before Magistrate Jay in City Police Court to-day and agreed to pay fines of $8 each. W. O. Moresby, K.C., for the defendants, asked for the return of such paraphernalia as was not in itself of a gambling nature.

Good wishes from the London, Ontario, Chamber of Commerce to the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, mailed on the occasion of a special air mail flight from London, were read at the meeting of the directors of the Victoria Chamber this afternoon. "It is our sincere hope that the special air mail flight from London, Canada, shall be the forerunners of more frequent and faster service to all parts of the Dominion," the letter read.

An amendment has been made to the Game Act regulations for the Province by making the open season for moose extend from September 1, 1928, to December 15, 1928, both dates inclusive, in that portion of the Omineca electoral district situate and lying to the south of the main line of the Canadian National Railways, formerly known as the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, except the watershed of the Bulkley River and tributaries.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Brittania Branch of Canadian Legion, held a well-attended meeting in the clubrooms this week. The usual business was transacted and suggestions made for entertainment during the coming Winter. It was decided to hold a progressive whist party on Monday evening, October 1, in the Sons of England Hall, Broad Street. Good prizes will be donated. It is hoped that all members and friends interested will attend.

Freeman Frederick Fletcher, charged on remand with attempted murder in connection with the wounding of William Canning, a passenger on the Ss. Adelaide recently, was further remanded in City Police Court to-day when the evidence for the prosecution in the preliminary hearing came to a close. Stuart Henderson, for the defence, asked for the adjournment until Saturday, to consider whether or not the defendant would produce evidence in the lower court.

The annual clothing allowance of the plain clothes force, $50 per man, was ordered paid by the City Police Commission yesterday, as was the annual boot allowance of the uniformed men, at $6 per man. Tenders will be invited through the council for thirty-four pairs of police trousers, eight overcoats and other materials. Tenders for inside painting work at the police station were tabled for analysis. Inspector Boulton's report on gasoline curb pumps was tabled for further study.

Premier Tolmie will address the next quarterly meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, P. B. Fowler, president, announced at the directors' meeting to-day. Mr. Fowler reported he had interviewed the Premier in response to a request from the directors and Dr. Tolmie had consented to speak on September 28.

HIGHWAY PLAN REDUCING LIST OF ACCIDENTS

City Police Board Will Co-operate With Municipalities to Extend Regulations

Extension of the arterial highway plan through the co-operation of Victoria's neighboring municipalities was the chief business considered at a meeting of the City Police Board yesterday afternoon.

The board will thank Oak Bay for prompt action in bringing Oak Bay Avenue traffic into line, and will request Saanich to do a like service for the Gorge Road and Quadra Street thoroughfares, thus tying up with the city's system. In the city itself the board will seek authority to declare Johnson Street west from Wharf Street and Esquimalt Road arterial highways.

The arterial highway plan is already reducing the number of automobile accidents, monthly reports of the police show. A series of $5 fines in the police court followed the first enforcement of the plan, but these are falling off now as motorists are becoming practiced in the use of the system.

SCHOOLS A PROBLEM

The rate of drivers past school buildings is still a problem, and particular reference is made to the crest of Fairfield Road at the Sir James Douglas School, where cars come over the rise almost at the door of the kindergarten annex. Signs are in place at all schools, however, and motorists are being asked to help by careful driving at all times.

Minor changes or amendments to the parking regulations, asked of the board by various merchants in the business section, were considered, and action tabled pending investigation.

BOARD HEARS OF LIBEL COMPLAINT

City Police Commissioners Will Be Represented at Vancouver Trial

A decision to have a representative of the City Police Commission at the trial of Robert Bracken, publisher, and Edward Marshall, editor, of Information, at the Vancouver Assizes, was reached by the commission yesterday at its regular meeting.

Bracken and Marshall are facing a charge of libel in proceedings instituted against them by Detectives Marcus Phipps and John H. Rogers of the Victoria City force, who alleged they were alluded to in an article about which they complain.

The board decided that representation would be necessary in any event, and left the choice of a delegate to Mayor J. C. Pendray, to be announced later.

Commissioner W. E. Staneland proposed that the plaintiffs in the case should apply for a change of venue of the hearing in Victoria. Mayor Pendray and Commissioner William White agreed with their colleague that the board could not ignore the proceedings, but must await the outcome with first-hand knowledge of what took place.

WILL DISCUSS PACIFIC TRADE

Victoria Men Leaving to Attend Convention in Los Angeles

Mr. Justice M. A. Macdonald of the B.C. Court of Appeal and P. B. Fowler, president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce will leave to-morrow to attend the sessions of the Pacific Foreign Trade Convention which opens in Los Angeles September 18, 19 and 20.

Mr. Justice Macdonald attends by special request of members of the council who were impressed with his eloquence when he spoke on the awakening of the Orient when the Council met in Victoria last year.

Besides giving the speaker a great ovation on that occasion, copies of his address made for the convention records were in demand and assurance was sought that he would address the next convention in Los Angeles.

As in former years the programme covers a wide range dealing with problems of the Pacific in general and experts in many lines of business will give addresses. The scope of activities and influence of the council has been broadened to include the Western provinces of Canada, the Hawaiian Islands and the Western portion of Mexico.

MANUFACTURERS MEET HERE

J. H. Roaf Addresses Canadian Manufacturers' Association at Luncheon

"In every respect this country's development is assured," said J. H. Roaf, president of the British Columbia branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, in his address given before the Victoria body at their luncheon meeting at the Empress Hotel to-day.

And this development, which, though slow, was, nevertheless, steady, would provide markets for British Columbia's products, he continued.

The manufacturers of the Province could produce three or four times as much as they are putting out at the present time, but the market did not warrant the increased production.

Canada is the greatest export country per capita in the world, he said, and since this was so it was vitally necessary for the manufacturers to co-operate in maintaining a body sufficiently representative of their business to make it possible for them to approach the governments and advise them on questions relating to manufacturing. In this respect the Canadian Manufacturers' Association had been able to do much good, he said.

The speaker quoted figures showing the growth in payrolls and the value of products made in Canada. In 1905 the payrolls of the Dominion totaled $11,253,263, with the products valued at $37,706,740, while in 1927 the estimated total of payrolls was approximately $55,000,000, with the valuation of products standing at about $250,000,000.

In closing, he urged the members to try and add new members to the association in order that they would gain strength and be a more representative body.

J. O. Cameron, president of the local branch, who presided over the meeting, stated that he realized the importance of augmenting the society and he hoped that the existing membership would soon be increased.

Provincial Constables Fenton and Lennox also obtained two game law convictions before Magistrate Walker, of Campbell River. GIVES REPORT ON PILOTAGE PROBE

Chamber Presented Strong Case, McGregor Tells Directors

After hearing the witnesses presented by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Justice Morrison, Commissioner, investigating pilotage affairs in British Columbia, thoroughly understood Victoria's attitude, George McGregor reported to the chamber directors to-day.

Witnesses emphasized that Victoria did not want compulsory pilotage or any regulations which would increase the present low charges which were an asset to the post, he said.

Mr. McGregor thanked the witnesses who attended to support the chamber's case. Capt. J. W. Troup proved a strong supporter, he mentioned.

On the motion of P. B. Fowler, president, Mr. McGregor and the witnesses were cordially thanked.

Late K. S. Palmer Came Here To Be Ordained

After a long and painful illness, the death occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital last night of Keith Stephenson Palmer, a resident of this city for the last twenty months.

The late Mr. Palmer came from England in December, 1926, ready for ordination by the Bishop of Columbia to serve on the staff of Christ Church Cathedral as helper to the Dean. A few days after his arrival he was taken seriously ill, and had been bedridden practically ever since, in spite of every medical care. He bore his long suffering with patience and fortitude, and was a constant inspiration to those who ministered to him. His passing has occasioned the deepest regret among those who knew him.

He was unmarried and is survived by his mother in England, and one brother. The remains are reposing at the B.C. Funeral Chapel pending burial arrangements, which will be announced later.

VANCOUVER WILL GET TOTEM POLE GOLFING TROPHY

Jasper Park, Sept. 14.—The Silver Totem Pole Trophy, play for which has been in progress over the Jasper Park Lodge course since Thursday, is sure to find a resting place in Vancouver for the third successive year.

Alfred Bull of the Jericho Country Club, Vancouver, made this fact positive this morning when he won from J. B. Starkey of Edmonton, 5 and 4. Monty Hill and R. Symes, both of Vancouver, who met in the upper bracket, are still on the course.

Authors Hear Fine Report of Recent Big Convention

The Victoria and Islands' Branch Canadian Authors' Association met in the library of Victoria College last evening with the president, Alfred Carmichael, in the chair. This being the first meeting since the holidays only members attended and all greatly enjoyed the bright account of the Authors' Convention at Calgary, and the well-known writers who attended it, which was given by Miss M. Eugenie Perry, who also met several members of the writing profession at Calgary and other points following the convention.

Interesting bits about Peter B. Kyne, Arthur Stringer and Frazier Hunt were told by the speaker. It was recalled that Frazier Hunt, one of the editors of Good Housekeeping, was the author of the "Lady With the Mask," which appeared about two years ago revealing the identity of E. Barrington and L. Adams Beck. The Calgary convention was characterized as very representative and thoroughly enjoyable.

Miss Perry also read from the Canadian Bookman for June her article entitled "Fiction. What Kind?" This contribution to The Bookman had aroused considerable discussion at the convention, and Mr. Carmichael recommended it as a subject for debate at some meeting during the Winter months.

A programme committee will be chosen before the next meeting to arrange details for the season. A letter from Mrs. Gladys Georgeson Ballentyne enclosing a poem by Frank Houghton, formerly well-known in British Columbia and Alaska, and who died recently, was read. Copies of this poem, "Age and Life," have been brought out by Dr. Maud Abbott of Montreal, cousin of Frank Houghton, for distribution among his friends. A recent poem by Dr. Duncan Campbell Scott, "Reality," which had just been received by the secretary was read by Donald Fraser.

STOCK MARKETS — FINANCIAL NEWS — GRAIN MARKETS

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd.)

Winnipeg, Sept. 14—Wheat: The market was very dull to-day with only a small trade passing and what there was appeared to be in the nature of short covering. Prices held steady around last night's close. Seaboard houses took a little wheat at the start when elevator companies were placing a few hedges after which there was nothing doing outside of spreading between the weakest months.

October, the nearby future continues to be relatively weak. This is the first time in several years that October has been at a discount under December, and denotes the weak cash position. Cash markets are weakening from day to day and spreads were again from one to two cents lower on all grades except one Northern which was unchanged. There is a little demand from exporters and shippers but this is said to be against old sales, as very little new business is being received, and cable bids are said to be out of line. The weather is almost perfect in Western Canada, there being no precipitation at any point while temperatures were warmer.

All the strength is in Chicago with the local market following in the absence of any selling pressure.

Coarse Grains: Oats were a little firmer, but trade was very small with practically nothing coming out. There was good buying of barley by seaboard houses and exporters and while offerings were fairly liberal, the offerings were well absorbed. There was also some demand for rye, and a better foreign inquiry. Oats closed ¼ higher to unchanged, barley ¾ to 1¼ higher and rye 1⅛ higher.

Flax: This market was a little easier, closing ½ to ¼ lower. Trade very light and no demand from any quarter.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—A large part of the United States and Canadian grain is moving and has been moving for the past thirty days, yet prices have shown no material change during that time. It is not to be supposed that consuming demand has come forward as rapidly as wheat has come to market, and it is reasonable to think that a large portion of receipts has been hedged. Yet, as visible supplies have increased, prices have remained almost stationary. The open interest as reported by the G.F.A. for Minneapolis, Kansas City, Duluth and Chicago totals about 170,000,000 bushels, which is nearly double the visible supply.

The total open interest under such conditions indicates to us a very material and so far undisturbed short interest as reported, in addition to a large hedging interest on the sold side and a very substantial sort of long interest which is evidencing its confidence in values. We have a stabilized market, but not at a level which affords satisfaction to wheat growers or their political representatives.

Corn—Shorts in the current delivery continue to show nervousness and they may sell, for there are only thirteen more business days in this month and open interests still is nearly 20,000,000 bushels.

October movement of old corn came largely and for the most part in July and that all available supplies of old corn will be practically exhausted before the time comes when industries can safely shift to new crop. Should weather for the next six weeks interfere with early movement of corn from the new crop, the cash corn situation would probably become critical.

Liverpool wheat due ½ to ¾ higher in the morning.

WHITNEY LETTER

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)

New York, Sept. 14.—Whitney of the Wall Street Financial Bureau says to-day:

RESUME ADVANCE TO-DAY

"Yesterday's market hesitated just enough to give those who have been predicting a reaction the opportunity to point to the fact that reaction was again confined entirely to stocks which have advanced sharply in the previous three days and consequently can be dismissed from mind. Secretary Mellon contributed a statement on conditions in prospect for business which can be construed in no other way than bullishly.

"Report from Washington officially denied that there was to be any warning by the Federal Reserve Board against speculation so that rumor is out of the way. To-day we have to look forward to a statement from one who is regarded as the leader of the oil industry, at least in this country, which is pronounced by those who are qualified to pass on it as the most constructing statement which the oil industry has enjoyed in two years. Call money has already declined to seven per cent and since it was freely offered in the market yesterday at 6½ we will perhaps not have to wait for next week as was generally expected to witness the decline below seven. It makes no difference what the loan total may show the market is headed higher, and will go higher to-day."

COMMENT

"U.S. Steel completed a three-point reaction from its best price in yesterday's market and then retraced half of it before the close. This should clear the way for the establishment of steel well above the 160 price to-day. Having crossed 110 Westinghouse Electric is scheduled for a new high record before the end of the week.

"Packard has established a new top and is on its way to the previously predicted $100 a share. Thus far the issue has at no time become spectacular in its movement but this phase of its advance should come well within the $100 limit. Columbia Gas, in which you were advised to take profits at 125, should be repurchased at this time and held for an objective of between 150 and 160 to the accompaniment of the previously predicted two-for-one split.

"N.Y. Central is about engaged in a renewed advance as leader of the rail group and should be purchased around 157 in anticipation of a new high record.

"Texas Corporation is continuing its advance and is expected to feature the oil group in to-day's market and to be accompanied by Marland Oil which has thus far been considerable of a laggard.

"Standard Commercial Tobacco has established a new high record for the year which will be amply justified by to-day's dividend action which will be sufficient to bring even further advance beyond the recently recorded new top.

"Anaconda, Erie, Miss Pacific and American Sugar are still worth buying."

Wall Street To-day

(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Leased Wire)

WARNER STOCK DROPS 22 POINTS

New York, Sept. 14.—Warner Bros., which has staged a long climb during the last year and has been one of the star stocks of the market this morning, took a sudden dive and crashed down from 119⅞ to 97. It closed at 100.

Fox, another film favorite, broke from 108½ to 101½ and closed at 102½.

New York, Sept. 14.—Volume of trading continued so heavy here to-day that the quotations on the ticker were running twenty-five to thirty-five minutes behind the market all day.

New York, Sept. 14.—A New York Stock Exchange seat to-day sold for $415,000, a new high record price and up $5,000 from the last high price.

New York, Sept. 14.—Spring and Company to-day say: "We suggest the purchase of Steel common on all easy spots with a view of retention over the next several months."

New York, Sept. 14.—The World says that oil stocks were bought heavily on advanced reports that a prominent oil man, just returned from Europe on a good-will mission, would make a statement shortly giving assurance that world-wide curtailment of production would be effected among the various international interests, if that proved necessary to stabilize the industry.

New York, Sept. 14.—The New York Times this morning says that one experienced stock exchange broker, who has made an extremely close study of the present swing of prices, said yesterday that the market now was in a stage of distribution.

New York, Sept. 14.—While consumption of copper is increasing, the price of the metal is still below the average of any period of years before the World War, but present indications point to a better level, The Journal of Commerce says to-day.

New York, Sept. 14.—Ninety issues were quoted ex-dividend on the big board to-day.

New York, Sept. 14—The Evening Edition of The Wall Street Journal says: Call money was seven per cent all day, with an easier tone, and the supply of funds appeared to be an offset to the increase of approximately $96,000,000 in brokers loans. In any event, the leading industrials stocks maintained a firm tone throughout the session except that there was an increased amount of profit taking in the afternoon which gave the market something of a ragged appearance and some observers seemed to feel that the buying demand was thinner than it had been recently.

Advices to take profits appeared to be on the increase. Amusement stocks suffered a wide open break in the last half hour with Warner Brothers, Stanley and Fox Film fading rapidly under pressure. There has been considerable speculative selling during the past few days of these issues on the theory that their violent advances had perhaps more than discounted constructive development in the industry.

OIL BONDS GET SUPPORT TO-DAY

New York, Sept. 14.—One oil and one utility issue supplied most of the strength in to-day's active bond market. Increases in the price of Pennsylvania crude and favorable individual reports, encouraged buying which sent Barnsdall 6s, with warrants, to new year's high at 108. Other oils failed to gain.

Brooklyn Union Gas debenture 5½s extended their gain 2 points to another new high at 299 without causing any sympathetic rise in other utilities.

Buying apparently was based on reports of a pending merger. Other industrials showed little activity.

Rails were firm, with Atchison 4s advancing a point on small turnover.

The foreign list was irregular.

Frosts Near Regina Have Damaged Wheat, Caufield Declares

Late-sown wheat in the central part of Saskatchewan around Regina was badly hit by frosts and the kernels will show much damage, according to Norman H. Caufield, president of Caufield Stooker Company, who has returned to Victoria after following the tests of his machines in the harvest fields all the way from the Southern States up into Canada.

During two weeks in August, there was frost practically every night in the Regina area, Mr. Caufield said, and heavy ice at times had to be broken in the morning by farmers in the water troughs.

SILVER

London, Sept. 14—Bar silver, 26 7-16d per ounce; money 3⅝ per cent; discount rates, short bills 4 3-16 and 4¼ per cent, three months' bills 4¼ and 4 5-16 per cent.

New York, Sept. 14.—Bar silver, 57½; Mexican dollars, 43⅝.

MONTREAL STOCKS

(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Leased Wire)

Montreal, Sept. 14.—The action of the market for the shares of Hollinger following the official announcement of cutting in two of the dividend, shows that the action of the directors had been pretty well discounted in the stock in recent months.

Montreal, Sept. 14.—The money situation is still reported as quite acute in Montreal for financial purposes, and this accounts for the comparative quietness on the stock exchange as well as on the curb despite the great activity and strength in Wall Street.

International Nickel was once more the leading issue, opening ½ up to 128¼ and continuing to rise to a high of 130¾, with the close at 130⅝, a net gain of 2⅝. Nearly all other specialties showed losses.

Lyall one down at 64, Massey-Harris ½ at 43, Brewers ¾ at 134½, ex-dividend $1. Hamilton Bridge down ⅛ to 39¾. Dominion Glass 3 at 135, ex-dividend 1¾ per cent, Smelters ½ at 268, after touching a low of 261¼, and Bronze ½ at 110.

An excellent annual report issued by Power Corporation earnings of 5.67 on common was reflected by a 4⅜-point jump to 78.

Brazilian was heavily traded in at the close and the price rose 2¼ to 69. Shawinigan sold up to 89¾ and closed one up at 89. Montreal Power eased off ⅜ at 120½ but Quebec Power improved ½ to 85½.

Wayagamack featured the pulp and paper group with a three-point drop to 78. Canada Power touched a low of 32¼ and closed at 32½, down ½. Brompton was ¼ lower at 44¼.

Port Alfred, Prince and Fraser, made no appearance on the board.

N.Y. Market Gossip

(By Quadra Investment Corporation)

New York, Sept. 14.—Stewart Warner is not only the leading auto accessory company in the world, but it is also a leader in six other lines of endeavor. The company made a very good showing in the first half of this year in spite of the fact that Ford did not get under volume production, and it is expected that the latter half of the year will show an even greater gain. We would follow the current move in STX.

Missouri Pacific is expected to show a very marked increase in earnings this year, present indications being that the net for the common stock will comfortably exceed $8 per share. Accumulation of the MOP issues has been taking place, and they are both in a very strong technical position. We look for an early resumption of dividend payments on the preferred stock, arrearages on which amounted to $50 per share on July first this year. The preferred is convertible share for share into the common, and it should move right along with that issue maintaining about a 50 point spread.

Arnold Constable is being groomed for a move which is expected to carry the stock into new all time high territory. Its high thus far this year has been 51¾. Earnings are trending upward, and after operations are transferred to the company's new building a marked increase in net is looked for. The stock has good sponsorship.

Erie has been moving up gradually, and is now within easy striking distance of its high of the year. We would continue long holdings in Erie and add thereof, if it goes through 67 on volume.

Eureka Vacuum Cleaner is again being accumulated by interests who have sponsored the issues in the past, although the company's earnings for the first six months were somewhat lower than in 1927. Great improvement was shown in July and August, the results for the latter month setting a new all time high record. Moreover, it is expected that a stock dividend will be declared before the end of this year. The current move in Eureka should carry the stock above 75.

NEWBEC STAGES WILD MARKET ON BIG STRIKE

Toronto, Sept. 14 (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire)—Solloway, Mills & Company to-day say:

"In conversation with the manager on Newbec this morning, we are informed that their diamond drill, which is set up 400 feet east of the shaft, encountered 11 feet of massive chalcopyrite and 6 feet of medium grade ore at a vertical depth of 250 feet. This is presumably a continuation of the ore on which the shaft was sunk and is, in our opinion, most important in view of the now indicated length of the ore zone. It would also appear that the zone was widening as previous intersections were only 5 to 6 feet."

News of the strike on Newbec resulted in a wild market in the stock in Toronto this morning and the Toronto mining board in R. F. Castle's board room here this morning was covered with records of sales.

The stock closed at 37½ yesterday afternoon. This morning it opened at 51 and continued on up to 58 at the close.

The sales record here at noon showed that more than 544,000 shares of the stock changed hands to-day.

ADMIRAL OF FAME ARRIVES IN VICTORIA

Governor R. R. Bruce, and conducted to Government House, where he was met by His Honor and entertained during the stay of the ship at this port.

ORGANIZED BLOCKADE

It was in the early part of 1914 that Admiral de Chair, then in command of the Tenth Cruiser Squadron, organized the effective blockade in the North Sea channels which gave breathing time to the British forces, at that time ferrying thousands of troops across to the continent in the early days of the war. He remained at the head of this blockade until the end of 1916.

Later in command of the Third Battle Cruiser Squadron, Admiral de Chair played an active part in the naval fighting which took place in the years 1917-18. In 1918, at the close of hostilities, he was placed in charge of the coastguard and reserve wings of the service, and retired in 1923.

LABOR IN POWER

The appointment of Admiral de Chair to the post of Governor of New South Wales marked the beginning of a stirring passage in the history of that state. A Labor administration came into power, and this regime set out to abolish the Legislative Council, or Upper House, of the state. It fell to the lot of the Governor to veto the plurality of Labor appointments to the Upper House, which were made with the intention of enforcing passage of the abolition measure.

On his present mission, Admiral de Chair is going to England on private business for a brief tour, and is not acting in his official capacity. He will sail from Quebec on the R.M.S. Empress of France, after crossing Canada over the lines of the C.P.R.

B.C. MARKET FIRM WITHOUT TREND

Vancouver, Sept. 14.—There was no decided trend either way to the market Friday forenoon, but the undertone of the transaction on the Vancouver stock exchange was strong and leading issues held their price levels well.

Heavy trading in Grandview and Woodbine featured the early session. Grandview sold between 40½ and 43¾ and Woodbine at 15¾ and 16.

Pend Oreille, in the absence of definite news of an official nature, did not move far from its recently established position, selling between $12.50 and $12.75.

Topley was off to 60, a drop of one point. Fuller reports from the Topley diamond drilling are expected by the end of this month.

Big Missouri was fairly firm, selling between 48 and 49, Cork Province held at 28, Rufus-Argenta around 27 and Ruth Hope at 59.

Whitewater is coming back definitely. Friday forenoon it climbed back to sales at $1.85 and $1.90.

The oil division was quiet again, McLeod being held for $5.50, Fabyan traded lightly at 10, Dalhousie at $2.50 and A. P. Consolidated at 52.

The market seems to be marking time, awaiting a definite trend, which is expected in Brokerage circles this month.

The earnings will be ample to provide for the dividend at this rate. It was also announced that negotiations are being carried on by the company with the T. and N.O. Newbec Sets Record For Trading Volume

Toronto, Sept. 14—The dividend on Premier Gold should read 6 cents a share, Solloway, Mills & Company announce to-day.

By R. F. Castle Leased Wire

Toronto, Sept. 14—The mining market was again subject to a great deal of liquidation this morning, but some new buying came into the market in some of the issues near the close and a few gains for the day were registered.

From the opening Newbec was exceptionally active. After moving up to 58, it was subjected to considerable profit-taking and sold down to 50, but recovered quickly from there to sell up again to 58½, and, in closing at 55 to 56½, was 6 points better than yesterday. The total volume of trading in this issue alone constituted nearly half of the entire sales, 728,620 shares being traded in, which, we believe, sets a new record on the Standard for one day's trading in a single issue.

Others of the Rouyn group were also subject to moderately heavy trading. Amulet, after dragging along at 315 during the better part of the session, firmed up quickly to 340, closing there for a net gain of 23. Area at 27 bid was unchanged.

Noranda did not receive as much attention and closed off 85 at 5200-5225. Abana was heavily sold from the opening of 350, reacting to 322, later recovering to close at 330-331 for a net loss of 10. Granada was somewhat stronger, selling up to 26.

In the Cadillac area, Graham Bosquet at 33¼ to 34 was up 2½. Thomson Cadillac was up 2 62-65, and Siscor, in heavy accumulation, sold from the opening of 65 up to 72, closing at 70-72, up 9. In moderate trading, Malartic held fairly firm from 168 to 170. Sherritt Gordon, after opening firm at 675, sold down to 650, and in closing at 655-670, was up 5. Sudbury Basin was heavily sold from the opening of 625 and reacted to 590, later recovering to 615, where it closed for a loss of 3.

In the Kirkland group, Bidgood was off at 65-65½. Lake Shore was off 35 at 2200-2230 while Wright Hargreaves at 315-320 was off 11. Teck was unchanged from yesterday, while Kirkland Lake lost 2. Tough Oakes lost 4 at 34.

In the Porcupine group, Hollinger was considerably firmer towards the close and up 25 at 855-850. Dome at 965-979 was up 20, while McIntyre at 2175-2190 lost 25.

Following considerable New York buying, Hudson Bay sold up quickly from the opening of 1910 to 2075, later reacting to 1975, where it closed for a new gain of 75 cents. Mandy, however, was decidedly weak and sold to close at 220-225 for a net loss of 25.

WORLD WHEAT SHOWS SURPLUS OVER NEEDS

Chicago, Sept. 14.—The Tribune today says: "Action of the wheat market surprised the bears and corn disappointed bulls. The latter believe that all bearish conditions are well discounted by the present levels of values. Those who are bearish say the corn crop is too nearly made to get bullish at present, and as for the wheat they consider that Canada will have all the grain that can be handled in more than a year, and consider it a sale on bulges.

"An impression amongst what traders is that there is the largest excess in production over consumptive requirements especially in surplus producing countries and prices must eventually work lower.

"Roumanian Paper Trust estimates the corn crop of that country at 90,000,000 bushels or 55,000,000 bushels less than last year."

Keeley Mine Enters Manitoba District

Toronto, Sept. 14. (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire)—The shareholders of Keely at their annual meeting yesterday were told of proposals to explore the lower contact of the mine from the 1,400-foot level of the adjoining Frontier Mine. Reference was made to the passing of the current dividend by the chairman, who stated that the company had over $1,000,000 in cash assets over and above liabilities.

Production since October last has been between 50,000 and 60,000 ounces monthly, leaving a profit of between $6,000 and $7,000 each month.

The management anticipate maintaining this output during the period in which the exploration of the lower contact is in progress.

The shareholders were told by Mr. Stratford, the chairman, that quite a promising copper property had been taken under option, situated in Wintering Lake, 190 miles north of The Pas, and quite close to the Hudson Bay Railway. This property has a strong break running through it for 3¼ miles, and while it was early yet to say how it would turn out, work was being aggressively pushed.

Dome Mines Take New Property

Toronto, Sept. 14. (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire)—Officials of Dome yesterday confirmed the report that the company had taken an option on the property of Chibogamau Properties Ltd. It is learned that by the terms of the agreement Dome will provide a sum of approximately $100,000 for development work which is to be completed by late 1929, after which payments amounting to approximately $500,000 will be due.

Should the terms of the option be completed, a new company may be formed in which Dome will have a 75 per cent interest and Chibogamau prospectors will hold the remaining 25 per cent. Dome is to purchase all supplies on the property and is to acquire or rent the diamond drill now being sent in by aeroplane. Two of the company's engineers will be on the way to the property within the course of a few days to take charge of operations.

CROWN RESERVE AND BIDGOOD

According to Kirkland Lake advices, Crown Reserve have cut their No. 1 vein, which shows a width of seven feet. No assays are available as yet.

Bidgood are reported to have cut their north vein which is six feet wide and assays $7 over this width.

Y.W.C.A. Auxiliary Held Silver Tea

The first gathering of the ladies' auxiliary to the Y.W.C.A. after the Summer vacation took the form of a business meeting and silver tea, held through the kindness of Mrs. J. O. Cameron at her home on Moss Street Wednesday afternoon. The affair was a great success financially, many friends attending the tea and contributing generously. The table was most attractive with its centre-bowl of yellow Autumn flowers, flanked by tall mauve tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. J. H. Fletcher, the president, was in the chair for the meeting, and plans were discussed for the forthcoming guest tea and for the tag day to be held on September 22. Mrs. Cameron was warmly thanked for her gracious hospitality.

Fernie Magistrate Dies Suddenly

Fernie, B.C., Sept. 14—G. G. Henderson, police magistrate of Fernie, collapsed this morning while preparing to accompany his two sons on a duck-hunting expedition and died within a few minutes from a heart attack.

Mr. Henderson had served several terms as mayor of Fernie.

MAKES TOURISTS LIARS

This law, said the communication, was making liars out of scores of Americans who spent hundreds of thousands of dollars in Canada.

B. C. Nicholas moved that the matter be taken up with the Minister of Customs. The interpretation of the law was too narrow, he thought. Herbert Anscomb seconded the motion, which was carried.

TUG CARGOES

Difficulties of landing cargoes from his tugs were outlined by George McGregor. Mr. McGregor said he had been notified by the Collector of Customs that he could not have scows of his company brought up with a foreign cargo alongside a wharf that was not classed as a suffrance wharf or a bond wharf. In Vancouver, he said, goods could be landed at any wharf. It was decided to take this matter up also with the Minister of Customs.

BIG DEVELOPMENT ON AT PIONEER MINE

Vancouver, Sept. 14. (By Stobie, Forlong & Co.)—Success attending the development of the property of the Pioneer Gold Mines Ltd., in the Bridge River district of British Columbia, north of Vancouver, has attracted much attention to this section as a producer of gold ores on a large scale.

The Pioneer is located in the gold-bearing diorite belt on Cadwallader Creek, and adjoins the Lorne Gold Mines' holdings, which are also under heavy development. Holdings of the Pioneer Company comprise sixteen claims, of which nine are crown-granted. The mine is reached by a good auto road from Bridge River, a station on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway near where the B.C. Electric Company is engaged in the construction of a unit which will develop 60,000 horse power when completed.

Prior to 1924 development of the Pioneer was held back by lack of adequate transportation, but by crude methods, such as grinding the ore in home-made arrastras and small stamp mills, a considerable amount of gold bullion was produced.

In 1924 David Sloan and associates connected with the present company and took over the property. They sunk the shaft to a depth of 600 feet and developed enough ore to justify a modern plant and equipment. While engaged in this work production was maintained by operating a thirty-ton Bryan mill, which in less than four years, turned out $320,000 in gold. This financed the development and paid for the new equipment.

Underground a new vertical shaft is now being extended to the 100-foot level. On the 600-foot level continuous ore has been opened up for more than 600 feet with good widths. Prospects are favorable for the further extension of this ore body, both in length and depth, and for the opening up of other ore bodies in parallel veins which are exposed in upper workings.

According to reports from the mine, above the 500-foot level enough ore has been placed in sight to keep the present plant operating for two years at capacity, with 30,000 tons of this ore broken down and ready for extraction. Mill runs indicate that this ore will average high in gold to the ton. Gold bricks come down regularly from the property.

To provide for a better saving of the values the company has installed a modern 125-ton cyanide plant, which is now operating on tailings from the Bryan mill, stamp mills and arrastras. It is estimated that these tailings contain $150,000 in gold which former methods failed to save. Recently a $30,000 gold brick, the first from the new plant, arrived in Vancouver.

Other equipment includes compressors of a capacity of 1,000 cubic feet of air per minute, drill sharpeners, hoists, machine drills and all machinery necessary for economical mining. By harnessing streams on the property 1,000 horse power has been developed, which is sufficient for present mill and mine requirements.

Pioneer Gold Mines Ltd., was incorporated under the laws of British Columbia in March, 1928, with a capitalization of $2,000,000 in $1 shares. The stock is listed on the Vancouver Stock Exchange. Prominent Vancouver business men are identified with the company. The officers are: Colonel Victor Spencer, president; Alfred Edwin Bull, secretary-treasurer, and David Sloan, managing director. The officers are all residents of Vancouver.

MOVIE STOCKS RISE AT PEAK, BLISS SAYS

By H. P. BLISS

New York, Sept. 14. (By B.C. Bond)—We believe that reactions will continue to be individual and not general, as witness the break in Fox Film yesterday, which perhaps should emphasize the wisdom of not being unwilling to take profits in the midst of the sudden wide advances which are characterizing so many of the individual moves.

The market action of three motor stocks which have long been speculative favorites, Chrysler, Hupp and Packard, is such as to indicate that the large and important holdings of the three are relatively undisturbed, and we advise the retention of long stock.

In our opinion, Steel common is still in the buying zone. Bethlehem Steel remains unexploited in the steel group, and yet this is one of the companies whose record of the past few years has been one of successful solution of the problem of reducing costs and of strengthening trade position. The stock may not yet be ready in the stock market sense, but we believe that values are easily proven and think purchase will be productive of compensatory results if a little patience is used.

We believe the advance in Anaconda is by no means at an end, but we do feel that the advances in the motion picture stocks may be culminating.

Big Eaters Get Acid Stomach

Bisurated Magnesia Neutralizes Acidity, Keeps Stomach Clean and Digestion Perfect

If you're a hearty eater; if you must have three big meals a day, eat them. But after each meal be sure to neutralize the dangerous acids that your food forms in the stomach, says a noted authority.

When your stomach is overloaded, the food contents soon sour and develop acid that practically paralyzes the stomach's activity long before the work of digestion can be completed. Then the stomach becomes weak and "cranky" and you are a daily sufferer from Indigestion, Gas, Sourness, Bloating and after-eating pains. Your appetite goes—you're sick and whirly—and what used to be the joys of a hearty meal become a menacing nightmare.

To quickly neutralize this dangerous acid: to cleanse and sweeten the stomach; to help the stomach take care of a hearty meal without pain or distress, go to your nearest drug store and get a little pure Bisurated Magnesia (powder or tablets) and take in a little hot water just after meals. You'll be amazed how quickly this simple treatment works.

Bisurated Magnesia is a powerful but hramless ant-acid and stomach corrective used by thousands of folks every day with the happiest of results. (Advt.)

JACK WAITE NOW REGULAR SHIPPER

Wallace, Idaho, Sept. 14.—Shipments of concentrate by the Jack Waite Consolidated Mining Company are now being delivered to the railroad by two motor trucks, and by the last of the week at least three carloads will be on the way to the Bunker Hill smelter at Kellogg, and thereafter it is announced by the management that shipments of a car a day, including crude ore recovered from the sorting belt, should be maintained. The mill is now handling 200 tons of ore a day, and this will soon be increased to the rated capacity of the mill of 250 tons. Jack Waite concentrates contain an average of around 65 per cent lead and six ounces of silver per ton. Another metal content worthy of mention is gold, of which the concentrates contain from $1 to $2.50 per ton, sufficient to cover cost of delivery from the mill to the railroad.

LONG ORE SHOOT

In his report on the Jack Waite and Jack Waite Extension properties, Fred W. Callaway, mining engineer, says the length of the vein in the Jack Waite is 2,100 and in the Jack Waite Extension 7,800 feet, making the total length of the vein in the consolidated properties 9,900 feet. In the Jack Waite practically continuous ore has been proved for approximately 1,500 feet in No. 2 tunnel, which is being extended in ore and is now nearing the Jack Waite Extension line. In this connection the conclusions reached by Mr. Callaway are of great significance as bearing upon the future of the consolidated properties. He says in part:

"The extensive length along the vein presents unusual possibilities for development of great ore reserves, and successful exploration would assure a long tenure of life to the operations. The Jack Waite undoubtedly has much greater ore resources than have so far been developed, and the possibilities in the Jack Waite Extension should be proportionately greater."

MUCH ORE DEVELOPED

Mr. Callaway's report was prepared in June, 1927, and since that time much has been accomplished in development, as well as reconstructing and increasing the capacity of the mill, installing electric haulage and in general modernizing the surface plant to meet the requirements of large production. In his report Mr. Callaway describes in detail Jack Waite development and ore disclosures, which includes tunnel No. 1 and the intermediate levels extending from the raise 435 feet in length connecting No. 2 tunnel to No. 1. In estimating ore tonnage, he placed ore actually in sight at 100,000 tons; partially developed ore, 60,000 tons; probable ore, 100,000 tons; possible ore 20,000 tons; total estimated ore, 280,000 tons. "I am convinced," says Mr. Callaway, "that the property has greater ore resources than the workings so far have developed, and look forward with confidence to this mine becoming a large producer."

JACK WAITE EXTENSION

Since Mr. Callaway's report the Jack Waite and Jack Waite Extension have been consolidated. Describing the Extension property, he states that the main tunnel driven on the opposite side of the divide from the Jack Waite and on identically the same level as No. 1 tunnel of the Jack Waite, cut the vein at a distance of 1,800 feet, followed by drifting about 30 feet on a vein 3 feet wide and having from six to eight inches of first-class galena ore.

A Thrilling Story of Fate and the Famous Sweepstake

By E. C. BULEY

"I'd come across with a square offer," Gordon said. "We could afford to pay £15,000 for a half share; it represents good business. But the girl knows enough to harbor some resentment; she may stick out for a better offer, from sheer pique. So the first thing to do is to call Sam Goldberg off."

"Do you mean . . ."

"Send her partner—Carol Winstanley, you know—to inform her that there is no question of buying her out of the business. It's not possible, anyway, since she is sitting pat. So make a virtue out of a necessity, old fruit. She is not the girl who likes to feel she is being jammed, and made to do things. She will be far more likely to talk fair business, with that threat removed from her head."

"One minute," Wareing objected, "I don't quite get the hang of all this. I want a minute or two to size things up."

"Oh, it's simple enough," Gordon said, with a smile of contempt for his associate's slowness of wit. "We are, so to speak, all in the same boat; Miss Kennett, Blake and ourselves. We know that Parachute isn't entitled to start, but we all have the best reasons for wanting to run him. As our interests in that matter are practically identical, we must get together. If we fall out among ourselves now, we all lose. Nobody wins, on a scrap. So send this Winstanley girl with a flag of truce, and I'll follow her up with an offer of £15,000 for a half share. And I'll bring Miss Kennett round to selling by saying that it is due to your good offices that her business is no longer threatened."

"But what about Blake?" growled Wareing, tenderly stroking his bruised jaw. "Am I to let him get away with it?"

"This time, you must," Gordon insisted. "Probably there will be another occasion for getting your own back, or whatever it is you aim to do. But you are not going to interfere with sound business, Wareing."

"Perhaps you are right," Wareing agreed reluctantly. "But suppose the girl turns you over to Blake?"

"In that case," replied Angus Gordon suavely, "I'll endeavor to make a deal, without the addition of a hearty clump on the jaw. It is all a matter of careful management, Wareing; not a thing more."

Joan Kennett sent out for sandwiches and coffee at lunch time, desiring a quiet hour for reflection. She wanted above everything else, to justify herself for the anger and contempt which possessed her when she had learned that Allen Franklin was a married man. After all, what did it matter to her whether he was married or not?

Nothing, of course; and less than nothing. But why, when he had been so candid and explicit on other points, should the man have thought fit to conceal from her the fact that he had left a wife behind him, without making any provision for her, when he fled from England and the arms of justice? It was an insult to her, just to conceal such a circumstance. He had taken her to the Carlton to dinner, and she had danced with him, behaving like any silly girl who takes nothing into account when she is having a good time. A married man!

A ring at the telephone interrupted Joan's unpleasant memories. She sprang to her feet, with a little gesture of real terror. No doubt The Evening Budget was already published, with her interview in a prominent place. He had read it, and at once hurried to ring her up. What could he possibly have to say for himself?

Again the bell rang, and Joan picked up the receiver, while she set her jaw resolutely as she prepared to deal with circumstances as they should arise.

THE REPORT

It was a familiar voice which asked for Miss Kennett, but not the voice of the man who called himself John Blake. Joan reddened with anger when she recognized the dulcet tones of her former partner, Carol Winstanley.

"Miss Kennett is speaking," she said coldly. "Who is that?"

"Oh, Joan, it is Carol. I want to see you at once. . ."

"I thought it was your voice," Joan said. "But I could not believe, after the warning I gave you, that you would have the incredible impudence to ring me up. What I said at our parting holds good; I refuse to have any communication with you."

"But, Joan. . ."

"You have probably been reading something about me in the newspapers," Joan went on, with a rising anger. "In that case you might have realized that I have less need than ever of you. Kindly ring off, and do not attempt to see me, or to communicate with me. Is that clear?"

"But listen, Joan. I am not selling to Goldberg at all. I wanted. . ."

Joan hung up the receiver with a clash. It had been a relief to expend some of the fury, which was rightly the portion of John Blake, upon Carol, who had now sunk in Joan's eyes to the position of a lesser offender. But the outburst had distinctly relieved her feelings and she was able to think more clearly and consecutively since she had blown off steam.

She was even able to smile ruefully, after a minute or two of cogitation, at her own unexpected and unbusinesslike conduct. She had allowed her resentment to deprive her of the sole remaining chance of snatching some tangible advantage from her windfall in the Calcutta sweep. She could have saved the business, at least, by the simple expedient of treating with Carol Winstanley in a sensible and dispassionate way. It would have been easy, in the mood Carol had betrayed over the telephone, to pin her down to the position of a sleeping partner; to keep her entirely out of the office, while paying her liberal interest on her investment.

But Joan was glad, nevertheless, that she had taken the high hand. She might go down leaving nothing but a little wreckage behind her, but she would go down with all colors flying, and consistent to the principles she had always professed.

And then Linda returned, waving a copy of The Evening Budget, while her young face was lit with a pretty excitement and genuine pleasure.

"Oh, have you read it, Miss Kennett?" she gasped. "It is wonderful, wonderful. But it is true, too, every word of it. I feel so proud to think that the whole world knows you now, just as I and the people who have had the chance of working with you have always known you."

She unfolded the sheet, and with no pretence of any business formality read for the tenth time, looking over Joan's shoulder. Young Mr. Kennedy had certainly done his work in a friendly spirit, and with excellent taste. Apparently he had gone to some other well-informed source for particulars of Joan and her business career. He told of a brave English girl who had spent years in Paris, working for a pittance while she mastered all the intricacies of a very intricate business. He told of her start in London, "with the backing of a sympathetic girl friend," and of her remarkable success in the space of four years.

"This clever and enterprising young Englishwoman," wrote Mr. Kennedy, "is quite unconcerned at the hazards which attach to the remarkable freak of fortune in which she is to play the principal role. In an interview with a representative of The Evening Budget, she betrayed an attitude which was surely pessimistic.

"'I am acquainted with the rumors about the possible fate of Parachute's nominator,' she said. 'I am quite prepared to hear that the colt will not be permitted even to start for the Derby. Yes, it is true that I have been approached by a possible purchaser of part of my sweep interest. But no deal has been made, and until the present position has been cleared up, no deal is likely to be made. It will be time enough to talk about selling, when I am assured that I have something to sell.'

"When asked whether she thought that Parachute would win the race, if permitted to start, Miss Kennett smiled and shook her head. 'I know nothing whatever about racing,' she replied, 'but I have often observed that horses expected to win the Derby are invariably beaten. I am basing no expectations of any kind upon my fortune in the draw of the Calcutta sweep.' And with a brief word of excuse, Miss Kennett dismissed the representative of The Evening Budget, to take up again the work which is evidently far more important to this typical modern woman than any exciting freak of fortune."

"What do you thinkof it, Miss Kennett?" demanded the enthusiastic Linda, "Isn't it wonderful?"

"Well, since this notoriety could not be escaped," Joan said, trying to make her voice very judicial and calm, "I suppose I should be thankful that it has taken this particular form. Mr. Kennedy has certainly been as considerate as possible, and has tried to present the circumstances in the proper light."

"How can you be so cool about it!" Linda exclaimed. "And Leon says they can't possibly prevent your horse from starting, and from winning. Everybody says the same thing, Miss Kennett."

"Suppose we get back to work, as Mr. Kennedy describes," Joan suggested. "We'll let everything get right behind, Linda, if we permit our attention to be occupied by outside affairs. Bring me the correspondence about the account of Ladoux Freres, and let us try to forget the Derby for an hour or two."

But it was easier to assume a calm detachment and a due sense of the importance of business than to live up to that high ideal. Joan could not dismiss a mental picture of John Blake, carelessly purchasing a copy of the evening paper, and discovering what she had intended to keep a secret from him, so long as that was possible. What would he do when he realized all the implications of the advice which she had given him, and which he had been so glad to accept?

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily's Little Ship

Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

(By Howard R. Garis).

"Dear me! This is too bad!" said Mrs. Longears one day as she sat in the hollow stump bungalow reading a letter that Mrs. Crow, the black bird postman, had left.

"What is too bad?" asked Uncle Wiggily, who sat in the corner. No, he wasn't sitting in the corner because he had been bad, but because the looking glass was there and Uncle Wiggily wanted to see if his pink nose was twinkling straight.

"It is too bad about those poor bunnies," said Uncle Wiggily's wife, who had come back from her vacation, bringing with her the forty-twelve little rabbits ready to start school Monday morning.

"Do you mean our baby bunnies?" asked Mr. Longears.

"No," said his wife, "the poor rabbit children I have in mind live in an orphan asylum not far from here. This letter is from a dear old lady rabbit friend of mine who helps look after the orphan bunnies. She says they are so poor, with no fathers or mothers to buy toys for them and she asks if we haven't some old playthings that we can spare for the orphans."

"Plenty of them," said Uncle Wiggily looking around the bungalow at the scattered toys, and where there are forty-twelve little rabbits belonging to Uncle Wiggily you can be sure there are many toys. "We could send a lot of these playthings to the orphan bunnies," said the old gentleman rabbit.

"That's what I was thinking," spoke his wife. "If I gather them up will you please take them?"

"I will, right gladly!" promised Uncle Wiggily.

"Even broken toys will do," said Mrs. Longears looking again at the letter from the orphan asylum rabbit lady.

"They have a kind old janitor who will mend them."

"Then I'll gather up a lot of the playthings and toys that our bunnies have cast aside because they are broken," said Uncle Wiggily, "and I'll take them to the poor bunnies."

So he started out with a basket of tops, roller skates, dolls, Noah's arks, picture books, puzzle games and one little ship. The little ship once had sails and could skim over the duck pond beautifully, just like a real vessel. And it wasn't so small, either, for Uncle Wiggily could have gotten on board.

The little ship had belonged to Buster, one of the forty-twelve bunnies of Uncle Wiggily. But Buster was like his name. He broke many things and the little ship was among them. So now the sails were torn and draggled and the rudder was broken. As Uncle Wiggily looked at this little ship, among other broken toys, the bunny gentleman thought to himself:

"It is a pity that pretty little ship is broken. Some little boy orphan bunny will want to sail it as soon as he sees it and he can't until the orphan asylum janitor mends it. I think I will stop and mend this ship myself before I take it with the other toys to the poor bunnies. I'll mend it and make it ready to sail."

No sooner said than done. Uncle Wiggily sat down beside the brook and soon had the rudder of the little ship mended. Then he began on the sails and, with the help of a dragon fly, or "darning needle" as these insects are sometimes called, the sails were soon made as good as new.

"Now I will try to sail the little ship," said Mr. Longears. He put it in the water, but there was no wind to blow on the sails and send the ship scudding along. "Perhaps if I got on board and wiggled the rudder the ship might sail," thought Mr. Longears. So he got on board and, just as he did so, down to the brook came running the Wolf.

"Ah ha! This time I have caught you!" howled the Wolf. "Come back here so I can nibble you!" He said this because Uncle Wiggily, on the little ship, was drifting out from shore and the Wolf did not want to get his feet wet. "Come back where I can get you!" howled the Bad Chap.

"No, I will not!" said Uncle Wiggily and oh, how he wished a hard wind would blow to send him on the little ship to the far shore where the Wolf could not get him. But no wind blew. Then the little ship with the rabbit on began drifting back to the bank where stood the Wolf.

"Ah! Now I'll get you!" howled the hungry chap. But he didn't and how Uncle Wiggily escaped I'll tell you tomorrow night. Then, in case chocolate cake doesn't get too proud to speak to the loaf of bread I'll tell you about Mr. Longears and the lollypops.

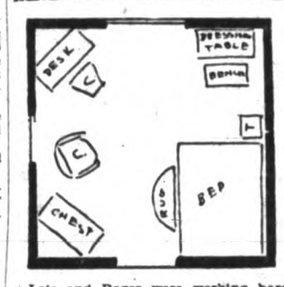
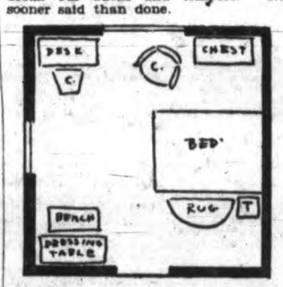
LOIS AND ROGER REARRANGE THEIR BEDROOM

By Florence La Ganke



Lois and Roger were working hard. They tried fixing the furniture one way and then another in their bedroom. Both of them were getting tired and cross and neither one was satisfied with any arrangement they worked out. "I tell you what we will do, Lois. We will sit down and cut out pieces of paper to scale to represent the various pieces of furniture. Then we will draw a room to scale, representing our bedroom. We can move the pieces of paper which represent the furniture much more easily than we can the furniture itself. In that way we won't break our backs and tempers." No sooner said than done.



The top drawing shows the room the way it was when they started. The bed fitted between the doorway and wall. The room seemed crowded and unlivable.

By moving the bed as shown in the second drawing and putting a bed side table and rug on either side they had one unit.

They put the furniture flat against the wall instead of placing it cat-a-corner. That immediately gave the room dignity and space.

The easy chair was near the window. The desk received plenty of light. The dressing table needed artificial light anyway, so it was placed near the door. The arrangement seemed satisfactory on paper and it proved to be so in reality.

Book of Knowledge

Sketches by Bessey. Synopsis by Brueckes.

AN ELECTRICAL TOY

Simply by waving a rod over this paper acrobat, you can make it do all kinds of crazy whirls. Electricity is the secret. You need an exciter, which is merely a glass rod or tube, which you rub with silk to charge. Be sure the rod and silk are dry. Effectiveness can be increased by warming them.

By NEA, Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge, Copyright, 1927-28.

Cut out the acrobat after the pattern shown above, using thin paper. Be sure the hole for the hands is round and clean.

Run cotton thread through the hole and suspend the acrobat across two chairs. Be sure the paper acrobat is dry.

Now if you rub the rod and wave it across the top of the acrobat, it will fly round and round. The acrobat swings because it is being electrified by the rod which you have charged with electricity by rubbing. Experiments with this kind of electricity may fail unless everything is warm and dry, including the weather.

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

To-morrow's Horoscope

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1928

Astrologers read in to-day's horoscope adverse signs for the early hours, but benefic aspects rule later in the day.

Workers should find this a favorable rule for holiday pleasures and they should benefit through recreation.

Women are well directed while this configuration prevails and they should find the rule most favorable to romance. Men may be easily won when the stars are posited as they are to-day.

This is read as a lucky wedding day, promising prosperity through hard work and mutual helpfulness.

Women should utilize the hours today for every sort of domestic activity. It is a lucky day for entertaining and men will appreciate hospitality that includes first-rate cooking.

Under this direction of the stars money talks more convincingly than fair promises and in labor troubles will be an efficient peacemaker.

This is not an auspicious rule for orators and those who patronize the radio may find it disappointing.

For starting on long journeys there is a forbidding sign and it is well to heed it, for severe storms at sea are foretold.

Children born on this day probably will have great personal magnetism. They usually will pay attention to dress and will develop musical and other talents that make for wide popularity. They have graceful figures, melodious voices and polished manners as they mature.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have a year of surprises. In it friends may be fickle and new associations may be formed. The subjects of Virgo often are too sensitive for their own best interests and should beware of self pity.

Meals For Five Cents In School Cafeteria

Montreal, Sept. 14.—A good meal for five cents.

Not even in pre-war days could this have been imagined. Nevertheless, believe it or not, a cafeteria has been opened here where a full meal was served at this price.

It was at the Plateau Academy, and Chairman Victor Dore of Montreal Roman Catholic School Corporation, gave the first order. He was followed by a few officials and by a bulk of the students of the seventh and eighth grades.

HIS MASTER'S VOICE

AT THE THEATRES

"THE LONG GOSPEL" IS COLUMBIA FILM PLAYING THIS WEEK

Ken Maynard Fan Clubs have been started all over the United States and Europe, according to advice received by Charles R. Rogers, producer of Maynard's pictures. His latest "The Long Gospel," is now playing at the Columbia Theatre.

MADGE BELLAMY PLAYS LEADING ROLE AT VARIETY

A star of ravishing beauty, a director of exceptional ability, a story of love, mystery and thrills. Add a magnificent cast, throw in colorful background—and what more could one ask? Such is "Bertha, the Sewing Machine Girl," a Fox Films release in which Madge Bellamy is starred, which is showing at the Variety Theatre today. It was directed by Irving Cummings.

"OH, BABY!" IS COMEDY FARCE AT PLAYHOUSE

The legend that the English have no sense of humor is dissipated for all time by the success of the super-comedy, "Oh, Baby!" a Universal-Jewel production at the Playhouse Theatre. This picture owes much of its hilarity to the farcical contributions of several laugh experts who claim the British Isles as their motherland.

The story was written by Harley Knoles, a native of Rotherham and a graduate of Cambridge University. After conceiving the mirth-provoking situations that make up the plot of "Oh, Baby!" Mr. Knoles went one step further and undertook the direction.

"THE WATER HOLE" IS FINE DESERT STORY OF WEST

For those who like Western pictures, "The Water Hole" has some beautiful and exciting desert scenes with much riding and tense situations. For those who prefer society drama, "The Water Hole" has an absorbing plot centering around a pampered society belle and scenes of magnificent entertainment in the homes and lives of the wealthy.

Jack Holt, as a young engineer in love with the philandering Nancy Carroll, proves himself a versatile and accomplished actor. In formal dress clothes or in rough riding outfit, Holt is equally at home. His technique is unassailable and his characterization, convincing.

On the stage at the Capitol Theatre is an entirely new programme of musical specialties, comedy and singing being offered by the stellart artists appearing for the balance of this week. The acts include, Doby and Lou, two clever harmony soloists, and comedians de luxe; Edyth Knapp, late harp soloist of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra, and Cameron and Cameron, Scotch comedians.

"THE RIVER PIRATE" STARS LOIS MORAN NOW AT DOMINION

Lois Moran, who first was discovered to moving picture audiences in "Stella Dallas," has in the two brief years since, shown her versatility in a dozen contrasting roles at least, scoring a phenomenal success in practically every one. This is called to mind by her latest characterization as Marjorie, in "The River Pirate," The Saturday Evening Post serial by Charles Francis Coe, which has been screened by Fox and which is to be shown at the Dominion Theatre to-day and to-morrow.

Running over the list of her performances in the last year or two brings to mind her romantic role as the gentle daughter in "The Music Master," the flower girl in "The Return of Peter Grim," the business woman in "Publicity Madness," the dancing girl in "Sharp Shooters," and the Boston society girl in "Don't Marry," among others. In the latter production she played a dual role, that of an up-to-date flapper and a demure little Puritan. What other young star—Miss Moran is just out of her teens—has in so brief a career given the screen such a wide variety of types?

Dr. Alexander On "Type of Character"

From the unicellular to the marvelous complexity of the human organization Dr. Alexander last night in his lecture in the Chamber of Commerce explained the types which have been evolved. He showed how food supply and climatic conditions led to national characteristics.

Three distinct anatomical divisions were in all, the vital or nutritive, the motive or muscular and boney and the nervous, each having distinct duties to perform. When all are equal we have balanced people, but when not we develop "temperament." Those of the vital are round, jolly, quick tempered, emotional, loving good things to eat and drink, clever in business, salesmanship, oratory, writers with the human touch, fervid preachers and smooth politicians. Make also good farmers and handlers of food stuffs.

The angular type often slower to develop mentally, but firm, determined, unyielding, constructive, make great engineers, railroad builders. Take to handling mining, timber business, contracting, wholesale rather than retail. Are better statesmen than politicians, clever surgeons, overseers or superintendents.

His description of the differences between the two types of both boys and girls was very enlightening indeed. It was an explanation every parent and teacher should appreciate.

Laughter and applause followed as he depicted the pecularities of each. He lectures on the nervous temperament to-night, and on Monday will give his most popular lecture on "Love, Courtship, Marriage and Jealousy."

CHURCH HEADS ARE TO MEET IN LONDON, ONT.

United Church Chooses Ontario City For 1930; Declaration on Prohibition

Winnipeg, Sept. 14—The General Council of the United Church of Canada will meet in 1930 in London, Ontario. That city was chosen at yesterday afternoon's session of the Council here.

PROHIBITION QUESTION

Bone dry prohibition—enactment and enforcement of laws prohibiting the manufacture, importation or sale of intoxicating liquors—is the aim of the United Church and declared to be the only remedy for the elimination of the liquor evil in the Dominion.

At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the General Council the problems created by the sale, manufacture and importation of liquor were the chief topic of debate, with many eminent members of the church addressing the 400 commissioners in attendance.

Recognizing public opinion was needed to secure observance and enforcement of the liquor laws of Canada, the General Council adopted a resolution, urging its ministers to undertake a programme of instruction, commending the movement now being inaugurated to secure from the youth of the country pledges of total abstinence and encouraging all its members to resist the growth of any social custom encouraging the use of liquor.

The situation created by the shipment of liquor into the United States, with, it was declared, "the apparent knowledge of the Government of Canada," was deplored.

Visitors Address Vancouver Club

Vancouver, Sept. 14.—The respective influences of Scotland and Ireland upon the development of Canada and the growth of the British Empire were colorfully recalled at a Vancouver Canadian Club luncheon yesterday in honor of the visiting Empire Parliamentary Association delegation when Sir Samuel Chapman, member of the British Parliament for South Edinburgh, and Thomas O'Connell, a member of the Dail of the Irish Free State and leader of the Labor Party in that body, addressed the gathering.

Illustrating his points with amusing stories, flashes of scintillating wit and touches of pathos, Sir Samuel Chapman carried to his auditors the message that the basis of future prosperity of the great Commonwealth of Nations within the British Empire must be constructed on a foundation of sympathy and understanding; a spirit of co-operation and mutual helpfulness must be manifested.

Mr. O'Connell spoke in terms of high praise of the receptions which had been accorded the party on its tour of Canada, and made reference to the important part played by his countrymen in the development of far flung portions of the Empire.

Spiritualists Now Need a Political Party, Says Doyle

London, Sept. 14—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle told spiritualists at the closing meeting of their international congress at Kensington last night that their next business was to turn themselves into a political party. Then, he said, they should get rid of "obsolete acts of Parliament under which spiritualists are subject to prosecution on charges of fortune telling."

"Once our grievances are remedied, we can become Socialists, Conservatives or anything we like," he said. "I am ready to join any party which will give us justice. Certainly, with our 500 spiritualist churches in this country, we should be able to sweep away these acts."

G. F. Barry, president of the International Federation of Spiritualists, agreed they must organize themselves politically to remove the disabilities which hitherto have prevented their imparting knowledge they possess freely to humanity.

HOPFIELDS CALL FOR MORE HELP

Laborers From United States Come to Help Harvest Crop

A shortage of workers to harvest the hop crops in the reclaimed Sumas area is being experienced this year.

Good crops last year on the bottom lands were followed by better crops this year as more areas reached maturity, with a consequent demand for a greater army of pickers. Attractive terms and accommodation for pickers were announced and arrangements were even made for children to be taken care of while the parents worked in the fields.

In spite of all inducements it was found impossible to enroll a large enough army in Canada for the work. The demand for seasonal labor for British Columbia orchards proved the main reason for lack of workers for the hop fields. So that the hops should not spoil, arrangements were made with the Canadian Immigration Department to permit some United States laborers to cross the line. About forty already have gone to the Sumas and another fifty will probably come. They will swell the number of 900 Canadians already engaged in picking hops.

PRINCE OF WALES AT CAIRO

Cairo, Sept. 14—The Prince of Wales and his younger brother, the Duke of Gloucester, were entertained last night at a dinner at which only men were present at the famous Gexira Sporting Club.

At the request of the Prince of Wales the 280 guests wore dinner jackets and black ties with a view to avoiding over-formality.
